ROME - The Savoy Hotel

Sunday: Arrival day - Opening Reception Sunday evening, March 22

Monday: Morning – Optional: Business exchange! Experience how your profession relates to Italy! Meet your career counterpart to learn how business in Italy translates to your work in Florida. Leadership Florida staff will send an advisory to all trip participants on ways to identify your professional counterpart. OR use this as free time for shopping in the Via Condotti or individual tours.
Afternoon - Bus tour of Rome, Roman Forum, and tour of Colosseum.

Tuesday: Morning - Guided walking tour through the historic district, including such sites as the Spanish Steps, Trevi Fountain, Pantheon and Piazza Navona.
Afternoon - Visit the beautiful Borghese Gallery.

Wednesday: Tours to include the Vatican Museum, Sistine Chapel, St. Peter's Basilica, and Tivoli Gardens.

Thursday: Travel to Pompeii, late lunch (on your own) on the return at an ocean front site, arrive in Rome in time for dinner (on your own) around the city.

FLORENCE - Hotel Baglioni

Friday: Travel to Florence by bus with a stop at a winery on the way for lunch and tour, then travel on to Florence for time to explore the historic city center.

Saturday: Morning - Walking tour of Florence
Afternoon - Guided visit of the Uffizi Gallery, Academia (statue of David), and Possible Renaissance dinner at the Palazzo Borghese, an amazing palace right in the center of Florence which was once the residence of Napoleon Bonaparte's sister Pauline.

Sunday: Depart on your own schedule.

Some tours are walking tours and do not require bus transportation.*

All walking tours will have one guide for every 25 people with whisper ear sets.

In the event a tour site needs to change, a replacement will be found with a similar type tour.
