8:30 – 9:20 Bridging Success: Connecting Facilities and Auxiliary Departments (Grand Magnolia Ballroom ABC)

Join us for an interactive session on bridging the gap between Facilities and Auxiliary Departments in schools. Like the team in The Office, we'll explore how collaboration leads to success. We'll discuss the CFO/COO's role in fostering teamwork, enhancing communication, and supporting programs like afterschool initiatives and community rentals. Learn how these partnerships drive revenue, improve efficiency, and boost team confidence. We'll start with a fun, teamwork activity inspired by The Office to highlight the importance of collaboration. This session offers practical tools for administrators, business officers, and facilities managers to create a thriving school community.
