The Apartment Association of North Carolina (AANC) has partnered with the Resident Relief Foundation (RRF) to provide emergency rental assistance for renters facing eviction. RRF is a non-profit specializing in providing emergency rental assistance. Earlier this year they launched a $10 million fundraising drive to focus on assisting renters around the country facing financial hardship due to COVID-19.

THE RESIDENT RELIEF FOUNDATION is driven by a single goal: to help responsible residents stay in their apartments during an unexpected financial emergency.

Whether it's a temporary work/job interruption, a car accident, a medical emergency or something similar, sometimes a person just needs a little help to get through a short dip in financial stability to keep going on their own.

THE APARTMENT ASSOCIATION OF NORTH CAROLINA is a statewide organization dedicated to supporting its members through meaningful advocacy, education, and services. AANC is comprised of seven local apartment associations in North Carolina. Our members represent 418,656 apartment homes throughout the state and we are committed to helping them maintain the safety, livability and security of their residents and the properties at which they reside.

Donations go directly to help residents pay their rent.

RRF is a 501(c)(3) and the donations made are tax-deductible.
