(Uniform Owner-Resident Relations Act)

To: _____, and all other occupants
Address: _____ Unit: _____
_____, New Mexico _____

You are notified that you, or someone with your consent, has substantially violated the rental agreement or separate agreement about the premises at:¹

_____ Unit: _____
_____, New Mexico _____ in that on or about _____, _____, (date) you, or someone with your consent did the following:

(Describe the violation specifically and in detail. Attach additional page(s) if necessary)

This conduct occurred on or within three hundred (300) feet of the premises and includes (check all that apply):

- possession, use, sale, distribution or manufacture of a controlled substance, other than misdemeanor possession and use;
- unlawful use of a deadly weapon;
- unlawful action causing serious physical harm to another person;
- sexual assault or sexual molestation of another person;
- entry into the dwelling unit or vehicle of another person without that person's permission and with intent to commit theft or assault.
- theft or attempted theft of the property of another person by use or threatened use of force; or
- intentional or reckless damage to property in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

As a result of this conduct, the owner of the premises may terminate the rental agreement three (3) days from the date of service set out below.

You cannot be evicted from your home without a court order. This notice does not mean that you must leave your home without the opportunity to first go to court to challenge the owner's termination of the rental agreement.

The owner may file in court to evict you for a substantial violation of the rental agreement. You have the right to challenge the termination of the rental agreement by going to the court hearing to respond to the owner's claims and tell your side of the story. If you do not go to the court hearing, the court may enter a judgment against you and issue a court order evicting you from your home.

Payment will be accepted only by: Cash Money Order Cashiers or Certified Check Personal Check
