Remaining Sponsorship Opportunities

We're only a few weeks away, but it's not too late to present your company to the AAOE Board or drive more traffic to your booth with these three opportunities.

- The Meal Sponsorship - As attendees are getting their grub at breakfast in the education area, lunch on the show floor, and snacks throughout the conference - have your company's branding right there in front of them! $15,000
- Coffee Sponsorship - When attendees line up to get their caffeine fix, your company could be what they see as they fill up their cuppa joe. $20,000
- The Board Orientation – This is an exclusive opportunity to meet new and current board members. You'll get dedicated time to share your company's mission with our leaders. $6,500

All sponsorships listed receive on-site recognition and a ticket to the President and Volunteer's reception.

Handing Out AAOE Bucks

You'll be given a stack of AAOE Bucks to give out to attendees who visit you at your booth. The quantity you choose to give out per interaction is up to you! A brief visit might only generate $10 in AAOE Bucks, whereas if they sign up for a demo, that might rate $25-50. And, you don't have to give out AAOE Bucks if there wasn't a quality interaction with the attendee at the booth.

Attendees will use their AAOE Bucks to bid on large silent auction prizes, such as a cooler full of Yeti products, a technology package, an adventure package, and a fat tire bike.
