OUR MISSION

The AASET NextGen Committee gives our under 40 professionals an opportunity to engage with one another while focusing on learning, socializing and community engagement.

OUR PURPOSE

The NextGen Committee is responsible for attracting and enriching the experience of young professionals in the multifamily industry. The Committee organizes networking, philanthropic, and educational events, and is tasked with infusing new ideas and initiatives into the association.

MEMBER BENEFITS

- Develop relationships with other young professionals
- Take part in social and professional development events throughout the year
- Access mentoring opportunities with area business leaders
- Grow your leadership skills and increase engagement in the community
