

EXECUTIVE HUMAN CAPITAL LEADER IN EDUCATION (eHCLE) 2024 Cohort

Attract, Grow, & Retain Top Talent in PK-12 Education

The Executive Human Capital Leaders in Education (eHCLE) certification is a new professional development opportunity for accomplished human capital leaders serving in education organizations. Through a ten-month cohort model, participants will receive intensive support from peers and subject-matter experts in areas of human capital management. The executive-level standards outline the competencies that leaders in PK-12 and related organizations need to strategically manage human capital processes at the system level.

Who should participate?

The eHCLE certification is appropriate for experienced leaders who have a stake in improving people practices in education systems.

By the end of the program, participants can expect to:

- Assess the human capital needs of their department or organization
- Earn their eHCLE credential, including a certificate, digital badge, and professional designation for use in email signatures and other communications
- Gain knowledge and skills that help them produce successful outcomes for their organization and the students and educators they serve

To earn their eHCLE certification, participants must*:

- Attend 90% of virtual convenings
- Provide feedback to colleagues on their work using best practices for critical feedback
- Complete and present an approved independent project aligned with eHCLE standards and a project quality rubric

* Protocols exists for unforeseen situations

Format
