
Get Involved

AASPA volunteers are a driving force in the development of new programs and services for members and for school personnel administrators. Through collaboration and initiatives, these dedicated individuals provide information crucial to advancing the school personnel administrators profession.

By joining an AASPA committee or sharing how you would like to get involved, you're doing more than volunteering—you're shaping the future of school HR administration.

Committee Descriptions:

Membership – The Membership Committee develops both long-term and short-term goals that will continuously support efforts to promote AASPA membership, including assisting with recruitment and retention and promoting the benefits and services offered by the organization.

Nominating – The Nominating Committee prepares and presents to the Executive Board and to the membership recommendations for candidates for elected positions as association officers and Executive Board members.

Professional Development – The Professional Development Committee develops and monitors a professional development plan for the association, monitors and develops high standards for professional development activities, broadens the association's role in providing effective professional development activities and programs and makes recommendations regarding a focused training approach.

Scholarship – The Scholarship Committee annually selects the recipients of the AASPA scholarships based on the process and criteria established by the committee; develops, continually monitors and refines the process and criteria for selecting candidates for AASPA scholarships, including the amount of the scholarship awards, financial accounting guidelines for the scholarship awards, and other details regarding the administration of the scholarship program and provides suggestions and ideas for expanding the fundraising opportunities to support annual scholarship awards.

Legislative & Governmental – The Legislative and Governmental Committee monitors and informs AASPA members of pending legislation involving and impacting school personnel initiatives in the United States and Canada, as well as at the international level.

Constitution & Bylaws – The Constitution and Bylaws Committee reviews annually the association's Constitution and Bylaws to determine whether the purpose and the governance of the association are adequately reflected in the document and prepares amendments to better serve the organization's needs.

Recognition – The Recognition Committee recognizes contributions of an outstanding nature made by members to the association, recognizes outstanding contributions by members or a school district to school personnel administration, recognizes outstanding contributions made by those outside the association in the area of school personnel administration and recognizes outstanding contributions of AASPA affiliate organizations.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee – The purpose of the Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee is to serve as the collaborating body for joint action on minority issues of common interest by advocating for the election, appointment, hiring, promotion and recognition of minorities to positions of influence and to provide a forum for information exchange and networking.

AASPA offers members many opportunities to get involved while adding to their personal resume. We encourage you to share your HR expertise and connect with fellow members. Take a look below at the many ways you can contribute.

Write a Blog

Do you have a blog you'd like to share with us? We welcome topics on the latest best practices in the field of PK-12 education as experienced, encountered and witnessed by you.

Present a Webinar

Have a topic you wish to present but can't do it in person? No problem. Take it online with an AASPA hosted Webinar. We cover topics on issues from Recruitment, Retention, Onboarding Risk Management, Evaluation and more.

Write an Article for one of our Publications

AASPA publishes four magazines each year. We are always in need of members to share information on programs, projects or best practices. Consider writing an article for one of our nationally published magazines.

Write a Book Review

Our bookstore offers an expansive list of publications and publishers specifically for school personnel administrators covering a range of topics from hiring, compensation, dismissal, evaluations, legal issues, best practices and much more. Consider writing a book review of one of our books or send us a recommendation and review of a book you would like us to carry.

Present at a Regional Boot Camp, Human Capital Leadership Summit or Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Summit

Do you present or have you ever considered presenting on school personnel administration? As an AASPA member, we look to you to help mold the future of human capital leadership and share your expertise with your fellow colleagues. Consider presenting at any of our four regional events held annually. All topics welcome.
