Company:	Company Description:	Time:
	BloomBoard is transforming educator prep by partnering with school districts and universities to bring teaching degree and certification programs into K–12 classrooms. Unlike traditional or online teacher education programs, this on-the- job approach allows educators to earn a university degree by demonstrating what they know through their daily classroom work with students. BloomBoard aids districts in identifying funding sources for on- the-job advancement programs, building support systems, and connecting to innovative higher education partners who deliver the instruction.	12:05pm - 12:25pm CST
	America’s #1 choice for educational staffing, Edustaff is a national leader serving over 600 public schools in 14 states. We specialize in substitute teachers, support staff, special education and higher education roles, offering top-quality human resources services including workshops and dedicated customer support. Our employees benefit from flexible schedules, excellent training, and the chance to make a local impact. Edustaff leads the educational space with a commitment to excellence and positive educational impact. Visit Edustaff.org to join our mission!	12:30pm - 12:50pm CST
	Moreland University offers a 9-month, online teacher certification program, 12-month master’s degrees, and ongoing teacher professional development. Our programs are fully accredited (including DEAC & CAEP), with rolling admissions, monthly start dates, and small cohorts with educators from all over the world. Our PD is 1-4 weeks per course, 1-4 CEUs, and customizable for our district partners.	12:55pm - 1:15 pm CST

Universal Benefits Consortium (UBC) provides high-quality, affordable health plans customized solely and specifically for school districts. We provide self-insured, level funded, and fully insured offerings to create benefit-rich medical plans aimed at recruiting and retaining top talent. UBC works closely with our clients to learn more about their current plan, culture, and long-term goals for their district in customizing their benefits portfolio. UBC prides itself on transparency by never charging consulting fees and providing constant communication on how a district's plan is performing. UBC is different by design.

International Alliance Group (IAG) is a leading provider of international teacher placement services, helping school districts across the United States bring experienced, highly qualified educators into their classrooms. IAG partners with districts to streamline the hiring process, ensuring schools have access to dedicated teachers from around the world through J-1 and H-1B visa programs. With a commitment to supporting both schools and educators, IAG offers comprehensive services, including recruitment, visa sponsorship, relocation assistance, certification guidance, and ongoing teacher support. By facilitating seamless transitions for international teachers, IAG helps districts strengthen their instructional teams and provide students with high-quality education. Our goal is to make international teacher placement efficient, compliant, and beneficial for all stakeholders, ensuring schools have the talent they need while educators receive the support necessary to succeed.
