	Clear Concepts is an HR consulting firm of seasoned HR consultants, technology specialists, and former school district employees. We focus exclusively on school systems, and our technology suite, HRConnectED, is built on a simple truth: tech is only powerful when your team knows how to use it - and use it well. We don't just hand you tools. We make sure they work for your team through proactive, personalized support. Our goal? To help you cut through the chaos, streamline processes, and see results fast, without the overwhelm. When you work with us, you're not just adopting new tech. You're partnering with people who've been in your shoes.	12:05pm - 12:25pm CST
	At American Fidelity, we know your needs because we're intimately familiar with the education community. This allows us to quickly become an extension of your HR department and provide administration for your entire benefits program. We help your employees understand the benefits you offer through in-person education and customized communications. Our enrollment platform allows us to seamlessly manage your entire benefits enrollment. And along the way, we help keep you and your program compliant.	12:30pm - 12:50pm CST
	Quantum Education Professionals is an educator-led company focused on connecting schools with top educators and specialists nationwide—fast. Whether you need immediate support or long-term staffing, we bridge critical gaps so students thrive. With Q360 Workforce Solutions, we simplify the staffing process with one invoice, one approval system, and one point of contact. Q360 is contract staffing made simple.	12:55pm - 1:15 pm CST

	Best known for our Safety & Compliance Training, Vector Solutions also offers PD Tracking Software, Evaluation Management Software, and Teacher & Staff PD Courses to help empower professional growth management in your district.	1:20pm - 1:40pm CST
	As a trusted partner, Vanteo delivers end-to-end talent acquisition services through legally compliant and ethically managed programs, working closely with federal and state governments to ensure seamless execution. Our approach combines workforce solutions for qualified essential workers with cultural exchange programs that foster international learning. With a team of former visa officers, immigration attorneys, and government relations experts, we manage the complete talent journey from sourcing to post-placement support.	1:45pm - 2:05pm CST
