

Combined AATF & AATG Convention

The Westin Copley Place • Boston, MA

July 11-14, 2026

The American Association of Teachers of French was founded to promote the teaching and learning of French and Francophone cultures.

The American Association of Teachers of German promotes the study of the German-speaking world in all its linguistic, cultural and ethnic diversity, and endeavors.

Convention Attendees are able to

- Network with French & German teacher colleagues from around the country
- Collaborate on special-interest group projects
- Stay current on pedagogical trends and methodologies
- Immerse oneself in language
 - Sessions offered in French & German
 - Additional activities geared towards both French teachers & German teachers
- Connect with exhibitors on the latest products and services
 - Textbook editors
 - EdTech
 - Educational services
- Engage in interactive and immersion activities
- Be recognized for individual and program awards
- Learn and grow as a professional
 - Highlight French & German program successes
 - Learn about additional opportunities to showcase student success