

Who is A.P. “Pat” Bolton

Andrew Patterson Bolton

- Born April 3rd, 1905, in Columbia, SC
- Wife Juanita Taylor Bolton, daughters Elizabeth B Smith & Glyn B. Wheeler
- 6 Grandchildren
- Civil Engineer, University of South Carolina.

Business Affiliations

- Assistant Testing Engineer – SC Hwy Dept – 1928-1942
- Project Manager – Robert and Company, Inc. – 1942 – 1946
- President – MacAsphalt Corportation – 1946 – 1971, Retired
- Registered SC Engineer
- Registered FL Engineer

Accomplishments/Contributions

- Group organizer of Southeastern Association of State Highway Officials (SASHO) – 1939 – 1941, currently SASHTO
- Supervised asphalt construction for several airfields in Florida, effectively accelerating construction of vital airfields during WWII
- Organized and secured original charter for the ACAF, Inc.
 - Donated land for original ACAF headquarters in Tallahassee, FL
 - Served as second President of ACAF from 1959-1960
 - Member of Board of Directors for 12 years
 - Chaired Specifications Committee for 6 years
- NAPA member for 10 years

Accomplishments/Contributions

- Daytona Speedway Construction - 1958
 - First high banking asphalt speedway

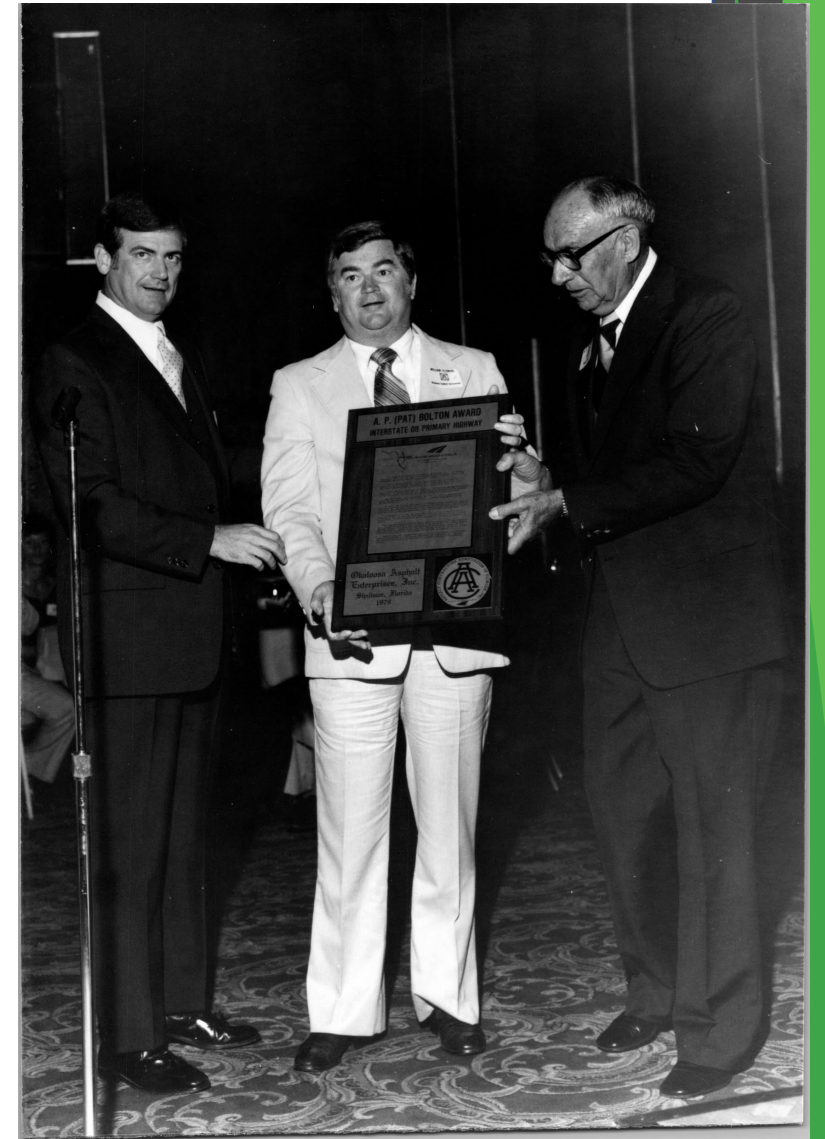

Honors/Recognitions/Affiliations

- Meritorious Civilian Service Award
- Honorary Lifetime Member of ACAF
- FTBA Hall of Fame - 2006 Inaugural Class
- Chairman – Florida Federal Savings & Loan
- Director – Fleetwing Corporation
- Board – Florida National Bank
- Member Florida Civil Engineering Society
- Member College Heights United Methodist Church

A.P. Bolton Award

- First awarded, 1979 – Okaloosa Asphalt Enterprises, Inc.
 - State Road 79 – Bay County
- MacAsphalt Corporation won, 1991
 - Florida's Turnpike – Osceola County
 - Swept all awards:
Roads & Streets, Resurfacing, A.P. Bolton
- Pinnacle of Achievement in Asphalt Paving in the State of Florida

*First A.P. (Pat) Bolton Award
Karl Bowers, FHWA (left),
(Red) Fleming, Okaloosa (center),
Pat Bolton (right)*

Video Interview with Charles Potts and Dave Hay
Click to view in YouTube

*Thank you,
Mr. Asphalt for your unrivaled contributions to our industry*

Died June 1st, 1988, in Winter Haven, FL of Alzheimer's at the age of 83

