

Congressman Scott Perry of the 10th Congressional District

Congressman Scott Perry is a combat Veteran representing the 760,000 People of the 10th Congressional District of Pennsylvania since 2013. He presently serves on the U.S. House Committees on: Transportation and Infrastructure - of which he is also Chairman of the Subcommittee on Economic Development, Public Buildings, and Emergency Management, and serves on the Subcommittee on Aviation; Oversight and Accountability; Foreign Affairs - on which he also serves on the Subcommittee on Oversight & Accountability; and the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence - on which he also serves on the Defense Intelligence and Overhead Architecture, and National Intelligence Enterprise Subcommittees. He is the former Chairman of the House

Freedom Caucus.

Perry retired from the U.S. Army at the rank of Brigadier General in 2019, after nearly 40 years in uniform. He served three terms in the Pennsylvania General Assembly, has a bachelor's degree from Penn State University in Business Management, and a master's degree in Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College.

He resides in Northern York County with his wife, Christy, and their two children.