

Megan Peterson, Ed.D, Pennsylvania Department of Transportation

With over 15 years of experience in civil rights, education administration, state government, and compliance, Dr. Megan Peterson is committed to driving positive change and promoting inclusive environments. Dr. Peterson started her career in higher education before transitioning to public service with a focus on civil rights, workforce development, and small business opportunity. Dr. Peterson currently serves as the Director of the Bureau of Workforce and Business Opportunity at the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation.

Dr. Peterson holds a B.A. in English Literature from Elizabethtown College, a M.S. in Organizational Development with a concentration in Higher Education Structure and Policy from Shippensburg University, and an Ed.D. in Educational Leadership from Gratz College. Dr. Peterson has received numerous regional awards and recognitions related to service, leadership, and diversity, and is involved in volunteer work within her community.