

Mark Amirault, Foundation Risk Partners

Mark Amirault is responsible for providing insurance coverage and consulting to all aspects of the design community. A graduate of Boston College, Mark is a frequent presenter of continuing education sessions on insurance, risk management, and business topics that face Architects, Engineers, Land Surveyors, and SUE firms.

Prior to becoming an A&E specialist, Mark worked as a marketing representative for a multinational bank and got his start in insurance working as a wholesale broker. In 2007, he opened the Philadelphia office for Klein Agency, LLC, and is now actively growing the Professional Risk Practice for Foundation Risk Partners.
