

Matthew Burd

Matt has been at the Turnpike for 20 years and also has 7 years of consultant experience. He started his PTC career in the roadway group before moving to Total Reconstruction.

In 2016 Matt was named manager of the Interchange and Special Projects Design unit before being promoted to Assistant Chief Engineer – Construction in 2022.

Matt is a 1996 Graduate of Penn State University and currently lives in Mechanicsburg with his wife and one of their three adult children.