

Din Abazi, P.E.

Din is a graduate of Drexel University. He has been with the Department for 19 years, joining in 2005 as a Civil Engineer Trainee. His background is in bridge design, inspection, construction and maintenance. Presently, he serves as District Executive for District 6-0.

Din has held various roles throughout his career at the Department including District Bridge Engineer, Principal Assistant Construction Engineer in Philadelphia County and Senior Assistant District Executive for Maintenance. He is a licensed professional engineer and certified bridge safety inspector.