

Jonathan Eboli, PE

Jonathan is a proud 2005 graduate of Dunmore High School and 2010 graduate of Drexel University – earning dual Bachelor of Science degrees in Civil and Architectural Engineering.

He began his career at PennDOT in 2010 as a Civil Engineer Trainee in Engineering District 4-0 based in Dunmore. He progressed in various positions and managed multiple assignments of increased responsibility within the design, construction, and maintenance divisions.

Jonathan previously served as the Acting District Executive in PennDOT's District 6-0 based in the Philadelphia region, the Acting Chief Executive for Highway Administration, and as the Chief Engineer for Highway Administration in Harrisburg.

He currently serves as the District Executive for PennDOT's District 4-0, serving Northeast PA.

Jonathan and his wife, Jessica, have three children – Grace, Nathan and Nico.