 - Page said Fauteux brought this point up last time to simply remind everyone the money was there and to use it on a meaningful purpose. If the money is not used, ACEC national may be less inclined to give money next time.

ARTICLE XI AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 - Purpose

Certain providers of goods and services commonly employed by members in conduct of their work are known to be highly reliable sources of information useful to consulting engineers. The same providers are in a position to act as informal liaisons between ACEC-SC and organizations and individuals with whom they work. By permitting appropriate representatives of provider organizations to participate more substantially in ACEC-SC activities, the potential for enhanced communication, cooperation and coordination can be realized. Accordingly, ACEC-SC has established an affiliate membership category.

Section 2 - Eligibility

Any organization, other than consulting engineering firms, which provides products and/or services routinely used, specified or recommended to clients by members of ACEC-SC may be eligible for affiliate membership.

Section 3 - Election to Affiliate Membership

- 1. Procedure. Any organization desirous of becoming an affiliate member of ACEC-SC may make its wishes known in writing to the Board. Before being considered, such organization shall provide the name of at least one ACEC-SC member who shall sponsor the potential affiliate member. Each such request for affiliate membership shall be reviewed by the Board of Directors. If the Board believes that granting affiliate membership to the interested party will be in the best interest of ACEC-SC, members shall be advised in writing and shall be given a period of three weeks to comment on the applicant. Failing any negative comment, an invitation to become an Affiliate member of ACEC-SC shall be issued to the interested party.
- 2. Review Considerations. In reviewing the desirability of issuing an invitation to any given prospective affiliate member firm, a member of the board shall first speak with the sponsoring ACEC-SC member to determine the basis for such sponsorship. The board shall review the composition of the current affiliate membership to determine the extent to which a given product or service category already is represented by existing affiliate membership, to help assure that any available affiliate memberships are used to enhance diversity of services and products represented by affiliate members. If the review indicates it would be desirable to include the prospect among the ACEC-SC affiliate membership, the Board shall contact other ACEC-SC members and nonmembers identified as references by the prospect, to help assure the prospect is known for conducting itself in a professional manner.

- 3. Member Comment. If after notification, a board member shall voice negative comments about the prospective affiliate member within the time period provided, an invitation shall not be issued to the prospective affiliate member until the Board obtains more information about the basis of the negative comment.
- 4. Rejection. If for any reason an invitation shall not be extended to an organization seeking affiliate membership in ACEC-SC, the organization shall be so informed.

Section 4 - Duration of Membership

An organization's affiliate membership shall continue only through the last day of the fiscal year during which affiliate membership was conferred. The Board shall issue invitations for annual affiliate membership renewal only to those organizations which, in the opinion of the Board, enrich the value of membership for ACEC-SC members.

Section 5 - Limited Number

The number of affiliate members permitted to belong to ACEC-SC at any given time shall be determined by the Board on an annual basis and as a general rule should not exceed 25-35 percent of the number of ACEC-SC member firms. No affiliate member shall be asked to leave during a fiscal year solely because a loss of ACEC-SC members reduces the number of affiliate members who may belong to ACEC-SC.

Section 6 - Representation

Each affiliate member shall be permitted three representatives. As part of the review process, prospective affiliate member shall identify who these three representatives shall be, and provide biographical information about each. At such time as representatives are changed, biographical information shall be furnished to and reviewed and approved by the Board before the replacement is accorded official representative status.

Section 7 - Participation in ACEC-SC Affairs

An affiliate member representative may serve on any ACEC-SC committee, and may attend and participate in ACEC-SC membership meetings. In all such activities, however, the affiliate member representative involved shall serve without vote, in an advisory capacity only.

Section 8 - Dues and Fees

There shall be no affiliate membership application fee because organizations may become members and maintain membership from year-to-year only at the invitation of the Board. However, affiliate members shall be required to pay dues to the ACEC-SC. Such dues shall be established each year by the Board of Directors.

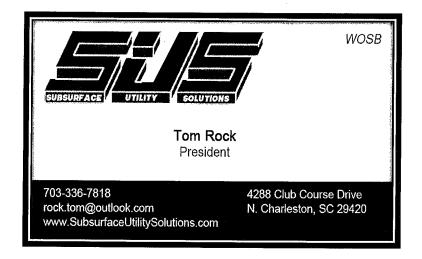

Section 9 - Relationship to ACEC

ACEC-SC is a member organization of the American Consulting Engineers Council, and as such, each ACEC-SC member also is a member of the American Consulting Engineers Council. Affiliate members may not belong to the American Consulting Engineers Council, however, and therefore no benefits accorded to members of the American Consulting Engineers Council shall be afforded to affiliate members of ACEC-SC.

Section 10 - Notice of Affiliate Membership

An affiliate member may not use affiliate membership status in the organization for any commercial purpose, except it may list its affiliate membership in proposals and similar documents of short-term longevity. In that affiliate membership in ACEC-SC may not be renewed by the Board from one year to the next, use of symbols and/or words indicating affiliate membership on or in materials such as brochures, letterheads, and business cards is expressly forbidden. In all cases, an affiliate member shall obtain permission for a specific application or category of application prior to implementing such application, and shall receive written permission for the application prior to implementing it.

EXPERIENCE

For the past 26 years, I worked for the So-Deep family of companies in various positions starting as a Project Manager Trainee to the position of President, with the goal of continuing to develop the standard of care for the SUE profession founded by So-Deep in 1981.

PRESIDENT | NOVEMBER 2016 - MARCH 2018

- Led the direction and financial success of the So-Deep family of companies within the new structure under venture-backed Survey and Mapping (SAM) LLC.
- Worked closely with the SAM senior management team developing equitable solutions to integrating two companies with differing organizational structures, means/methodologies, growth models, and employee benefits. Responsible for relaying these to So-Deep employees in a manner to facilitate the company's future success.

PRESIDENT | 2009 - NOVEMBER 2016

- Oversaw and/or performed all duties related to costs and pricing, employee benefits, business development, safety, quality, and scopes of work.
- Oversaw the purchase process, transitioned, and integrated So-Deep through the merger into SAM LLC retaining all key So-Deep employees.
- Principal in Responsible Charge for all on-call DOT contracts and other local municipalities.
- Increased contract revenue and net income each year over the previous year an average of 12% as President.
- Led company expansion into Minnesota, Illinois, and Pennsylvania while continuing to grow within So-Deep's existing Southeast client base.
- Introduced Utility Coordination, Utility Construction Inspection, Conventional Survey service lines to complement Subsurface Utility Engineering.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT | 2008 - 2009

- Performed the duties of the President, at the time, in his absence, with a terminal illness.
- Coordinated and published internally three manuals still used today: So-Deep Safety Initiative, to provide guidelines and procedures for improving safety measures, the So-Deep Master Quality Management Plan, to provide employees with a comprehensive manual outlining step-by-step procedures for all aspects of SUE, and the So-Deep Equipment Procedures Manual to outline all pieces of equipment used by the company field personnel.
- Created the current in-house Skills Certification Program, including training modules and tests.
- Significantly improved the company quality and safety rating to ensure So-Deep's ability to provide services in multiple states and markets.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT | 2007 - 2008

 Performed all Vice President Southeast duties while developing consistencies across offices within the company for improved efficiencies and negotiated prices for all on-call contracts in the Southeastern District. Subject: SCCJC 2019 Membership

Dear Mr. Jones:

I want to sincerely thank you for your past support of the SC Civil Justice Coalition (SCCJC) and strongly encourage you to continue your support in 2019. We strongly value your continued support.

Tort reform was and will continue to be a major issue for business and industry in our state. As you know, we had success in recent years, such as the passage of the Trespasser Responsibility Act and preventing the passage of a state False Claims Act. We also blocked attempts to stop regulation of the lawsuit lending industry. We will be filing several tort reform bills for the upcoming 2019 session concerning several important tort matters, including: Joint and Several Liability Reform, Seatbelt Non-Use Admissibility; Transparency in Private Attorney Contracting; and Asbestos Trust Transparency.

Our coalition fully anticipates attempts to undo our successful tort reform efforts of the past decade or so and efforts to increase the liability of companies through passage of legislation harmful to businesses in our state. We will continue to fight these bills every step of the way.

We only benefit by having strength in numbers to fight those that attempt to create more opportunities for frivolous suits and to exert control over the different branches of government. We need your continued support!

Please find enclosed an invoice for your 2019 membership. If you have questions, please contact me at (803)260-5258 (mobile), 803-771-0008 (office), or at ehunter@sccjc.org.

Sincerely,

Earl Hunter

Executive Director

SC Joint & Several Liability info:

South Carolina abolished joint and several liability in 2005 when the South Carolina General Assembly adopted South Carolina's Uniform Contribution Among Tortfeasors Act, located at S.C. Code § 15-38-10 et seq. http://www.scstatehouse.gov/code/t15c038.php.

The Act addresses:

- 1. The allocation of fault and damages between a plaintiff and one or more defendants; and
- 2. The right of contribution among joint tortfeasors.

Allocation of fault between a Plaintiff and Defendant(s)

Under the Act:

- Joint and several liability does not apply to any defendant whose conduct is less than 50% of the total fault for the plaintiff's indivisible damages. Such a defendant is liable for only the percentage of fault attributed to him by the fact finder. If the defendant is more than 50% at fault, he will be jointly and severally liable.
- In a jury trial, the jury shall determine liability and damages.
- If the jury finds faults and damages, upon motion by a defendant, the jury shall allocate the damages between the parties.
- The Court may determine that two or more persons be treated as a single party.

The empty chair defense applies

The South Carolina Contribution Among Tortfeasors Act envisions that one or more potentially liable parties may settle with a plaintiff. Section 15-38-15(D) provides: (D) A defendant shall retain the right to assert that another potential tortfeasor, whether or not a party, contributed to the alleged injury or damages and/or may be liable for any or all of the damages alleged by any other party.

In recent cases, the South Carolina Supreme Court expressly indicated that the "empty chair defense" is available to a defendant that has not settled. In Machin v. Carus Corp., Slip. Op. No. 27714 (April 26, 2017), the South Carolina Supreme Court held that a non-settling defendant can introduce evidence at trial that another person (including the plaintiff's employer) was the cause of the plaintiff's injuries, provided that such evidence relates to a defense in the case. For example, Machin involved a products liability action. Evidence that the employer had altered the machine was relevant to the defense that when the machine was sold it was not in a defective condition and unreasonably dangerous.

Likewise, in Smith v. Norman K. Tiffany, Slip. Op. No. 27715 (April 26, 2017), the South Carolina Supreme Court held that Section (D) codifies the empty chair defense; "[T]he General Assembly took steps to protect nonsettling defendants by codifying a nonsettling defendant's right to argue the so-called empty chair defense in subsection (D)..." Therefore, if a person or entity settles with a Plaintiff, a non-settling defendant may present evidence and argue at trial facts to support its defenses, including facts that show that a settling person or entity caused the plaintiff's injuries.

There is a right to offset amounts collected from settling defendants. Section 15-38-15(E) provides:

Notwithstanding the application of this section, setoff from any settlement received from any potential tortfeasor prior to the verdict shall be applied in proportion to each defendant's percentage of liability as determined pursuant to subsection (C). The right to setoff amounts paid by other parties arises by operation of law. Smith v. Widner, 397 S.C. 468, 724 S.E.2d 188 (Ct. App. 2012). Based upon South Carolina cases, the trial court must reduce the verdict by the amount paid in settlement by another party before entering judgment. For setoff to apply as a matter to law, the settlement funds must have been paid to compensate the same plaintiff on a claim for the same injury. However, when a settlement involved two claims, one of which involves the same injury as the claim tried to verdict and one of which does not, the trial court must make the factual determination of how to allocate the settlement between the two claims. Presumably, if the settlement agreement with the settling party does not allocate the settlement proceeds between injuries or damages, the trial court must hold an evidentiary hearing to determine which claims for damages were settled and how the settlement proceeds must be allocated.

The verdict form will not include a party that has settled.

The only parties that will appear on the verdict form are those that are still in the case at the time it is sent to the jury. In Smith v. Norman K. Tiffany, the South Carolina Supreme Court strictly interpreted the statute and indicated that 100% of the fault would be allocated among the plaintiff and the defendants. Likewise, the Machin court stated the rule as follows:

In describing the allocation of fault among parties and the format of the jury form, if the legislature intended to allow non-parties to be included on the jury verdict form, it would have used terms other than "defendant" and "defendants" in drafting subsection C, just as it used the different term – potential tortfeasor – in subsection (D). Giving the words 'defendant' and 'defendant' a plain and ordinary reading, we find that subsection (C) allows only a "defendant" or "defendants" to be listed on the jury form and included in the allocation of fault.
