

Virtual Part Time Teacher Academy

Thursday, June 13, 2024

Agenda

(All scheduled times are EST. A Zoom link will be provided the morning of June 13.)

2:45 pm – 2:55 pm

Welcome and Instructions

2:55 pm – 3:55 pm

Tech Tools for Teaching and Training

Presenters: Dr. Daisy Shah, Specialist, Palm Beach County ACE

Hey! Get your phones out! In this phones-on, interactive session, we will share easy-to-utilize tools that are sure to make your next teaching or training session more innovative, engaging, and memorable. Leave with a free toolbox full of tools of the trade.

4:00 pm – 5:00 pm

Help, I'm Stuck! Navigating Successful Math Interventions with Expert Resources

Presenter: Cynthia Bell, Director, Numeracy & Workforce Development Services, Literacy Assistance Center

Discover the power of supporting productive struggle in mathematics learning. In this session, we will discuss effective responses that enhance and support a learner's progress and sense-making while creating resilient and confident learners. Join us to deepen your understanding of the essential practice of productive struggle.

5:05 pm – 6:05 pm

Exploring Fundamental Principles of Effective Adult Language Education

Presenter: Christine Briggs, Resource Instructor, Collier County Adult Education

Description: Going back to the basic research-based principles to help our Adult Education instructors apply effective adult language education consistently in their teaching. We will evaluate the assets' students bring to the classroom and create engaging activities that reflect learner's assets, incorporate real-world relevance, and integrate multiple modalities of English. By the end of the session, educators will be able to describe the principles of effective adult education and know how to plan and create a supportive learning environment with the knowledge on creating scaffolded activities that help learners stretch beyond their current level.

6:10 pm – 7:10 pm

Engagement Strategies for the Classroom

Presenter: Ketsia Nortelus, Resource Teacher, Orange County Technical College

Participate in effective practices and strategies that will deliver equitable learning for all students.

7:10 pm – 7:15 pm

Wrap-up