

Mike Ezell

U.S. Representative Mike Ezell is serving his second term in the 119th Congress as the Congressman for Mississippi's Fourth Congressional District. A proud native of the Mississippi Gulf Coast, Congressman Ezell is a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi, the Mississippi Law Enforcement Training Academy, and the FBI National Academy. In Congress, he serves on the House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee, where he is the Chairman of the Coast Guard and Maritime Transportation Subcommittee and a member of the Economic Development, Public Buildings, and Emergency Management subcommittee. He also serves on the House Natural Resources Committee, where he is the Vice Chairman of the Subcommittee on Water, Wildlife and Fisheries and a member of the Energy and Mineral Resources Subcommittee. Before being elected to represent the people of South Mississippi in Washington, Congressman Ezell was a career law enforcement officer for more than forty years, most recently serving as Sheriff of Jackson County. In Congress, he is committed to advocating for the people of South Mississippi by supporting our active-duty servicemembers and veterans, defending our Constitutional rights, and working to cut taxes and reduce burdensome regulations. When he's not in Washington, Congressman Ezell enjoys hunting and fishing across South Mississippi. He and his wife, Suzette, live in Pascagoula, where they are active members of the First Baptist Church of Pascagoula. They have one daughter, Amy Ezell Dennis (Coby) and one granddaughter, Sydney.
