

Responding to Complaints about Certified Individuals

Complainants are requested to file a complaint with the overseeing body of the state license(s) the therapist holds. After there is a formal resolution of the complaint, the AEE Accreditation Council will review the findings of the state licensing board and take appropriate action if AEE believes such action is warranted.