

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS:

CHARLES E. CASTLE, JR. VOLUNTEER AWARD – 2018

As a celebration of the life of Charles E. Castle, Jr., a tireless friend and advocate of the James E. Duckworth School, we are pleased to announce a call for entries for the annual Charles E. Castle, Jr. Award.

The intent of this award is to recognize a Duckworth volunteer who has demonstrated an outstanding commitment to the school over the past year, and who embodies Mr. Castle's spirit of volunteerism and dedication. We are looking for a volunteer who stands out from the crowd.

The award-worthy recipient may be any volunteer associated with the school, a Duckworth school employee, AOBA member, Duckworth student's family member, PTA member, affiliated school/organization, or a member of the School Board.

We look forward to this annual recognition of an outstanding volunteer.

HISTORY ON MR. CASTLE

Charles E. Castle, Jr., or "Charlie" as he was known to most everyone, was an advocate for the James E. Duckworth School for over 21 years. In addition to providing personal financial support, Charlie knew how to rally volunteers if physical improvements were needed to the Duckworth School and grounds. Charlie worked "under the radar", not focused on recognition for his efforts, but rather on the improvement of the learning experience for each student at Duckworth.

DEADLINE

To nominate a volunteer for the Charles E. Castle, Jr. Award, please complete the following nomination form by April 11, 2018 and return via email to Jeanne Clarke at AOBA at jclarke@aoba-metro-org.

AWARD PRESENTATION

The award will be presented on Friday, April 20, 2018 at Challenge Day at the Duckworth School.
