2020 SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

For Prince George’s County High School Graduates

A two-year scholarship worth $6,000
APPLICATION DEADLINE: JULY 10, 2020

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Sponsored by the Apartment and Office Building Association of Metropolitan Washington (AOBA), the Scholarship Program offers graduates of Prince George’s County high schools paid tuition to Prince George’s Community College, a two-year scholarship worth $6,000.

AOBA Scholars participate in a successful academic and career preparation program with special emphasis on leadership and community service. They also have an opportunity to interact with professionals in the apartment and office building industry as well as college staff through summer internships, leadership seminars, mentoring programs, and academic and career counseling.

Successful graduates will then have an opportunity to apply for a scholarship, provided by Southern Management Corporation, to attend The American University.

2020 ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- US citizen or permanent resident
- Resident of Prince George’s County
- Current graduate or have graduated within the last three years from a Prince George’s County high school
- Accepted for admission to Prince George’s Community College and completed the college’s placement test and application by the deadline
- Evidence of readiness to start college credit courses (i.e. successful completion of developmental coursework if necessary)
- A minimum 2.5 cumulative high school/college grade point average; students are required to submit a copy of their high school and/or college transcripts
- Household income of no more than $85,000 per year as evidenced by the previous year’s tax return (to document financial need)
- Three letters of recommendation: two letters from high school/college faculty or staff and one letter from a recognized community organization
