

Art Documentation

Table of Contents

volume 33, number 1, Spring 2014

Editorial

Judy Dyki

The Tenacious Book, Part 1: The Curious State of Art and Architecture Library Collections in a Digital Era

D. Vanessa Kam

The Tenacious Book, Part 2: Publishers' Views on the Once and Future State of the Art Book

D. Vanessa Kam

Art E-Books for Academic Libraries: A Snapshot

Jennifer O. Yao

Creating Alternative Art Libraries

Ksenia Cheinman

Results in the Cloud: Using Web Storage for Auction House Price Lists

Dan Lipcan and Erika Hauser

History, Identity, and Twenty-First Century Skills: Experiments in Institutional Blogging

Sarah Osborne Bender

Art Gallery Archives: Professionalization of a Commercial Sector

Lynda Bunting, Virginia Allison, and Ben Lee Ritchie Handler

Digital Scrolling Paintings at the University of Chicago: From Pedagogical Tool to Open Scholarly Resource

Amanda Rybin

From Hieroglyphs to Hashtags: The Information-Seeking Behaviors of Contemporary Egyptian Artists

Shannon Marie Robinson

Incorporating Technology: Using Tablets and Apps as Reference and Teaching Tools in Architecture School Libraries

Cathryn Copper

Collecting Library Resources for Video Game Design Students: An Information Behavior Study

Olivia Miller