

ARLIS/NA Study Trip to the UK July 18-24, 2010

The ARLIS/NA International Relations Committee is organizing a study visit to the UK, which will follow the ARLIS/UK and Ireland conference in Edinburgh July 14-16, 2010. Participants are not required to attend ARLIS/UK and Ireland, but we hope that some may take advantage of the opportunity to do so.

Most visits will be personalized with tours and speakers from the participating libraries. Visits will include:

London:

- British Architectural Library
- British Library
- Courtauld Institute of Art
- National Art Library at the Victoria and Albert Museum
- National Gallery
- Paul Mellon Centre
- Sir John Soane's Museum
- Tate Britain
- Tate Modern
- Wallace Collection

Oxford:

- Sackler Library
- Balfour Library
- Pitt Rivers Museum
- Ashmolean Museum – Eastern and Western Print Art Rooms

DETAILS:

Applications for the study trip are now being accepted by Elizabeth Darocha Berenz (elizabeth.berenz@artstor.org) and the last day we will accept them is May 24, 2010. Applicants will be selected on a first-come first-served basis. The study tour will be able to accommodate 12 ARLIS/NA members. Unfortunately, spouses and partners will not be able to join the participants on the trip.

Study trip applicants will be notified by June 1, 2010 if they are accepted for the trip or if they are an alternate.

COSTS:

There is no fee, other than a $350 deposit, which must accompany all applications. This deposit will be applicable to housing and local travel expenses. The deposit will be returned to applicants who are not accepted for the trip.

Participants are responsible for airfare (round-trip to/from the UK) and some local transportation. Please also be prepared to cover most of your meals and miscellaneous expenses.

HOUSING:

Participants will stay in University College London housing (<http://www.ucl.ac.uk/residences/>) located in central London, which will cost approximately £41/night (singles only). All rooms are en-suite. Application deposits will be used toward housing fees. Participants are responsible for additional housing costs not covered by the deposit.

Brief itinerary:

Wednesday, July 14 –Friday, July 16: ARLIS/UK and Ireland conference (optional; requires separate registration and payment)

Sunday, July 18: Arrival in London

Monday, July 19: Victoria and Albert Museum, Paul Mellon Centre

Tuesday, July 20: Oxford University

Wednesday, July 21: National Gallery, Courtauld Institute

Thursday, July 22: British Library, Soane Museum

Friday, July 23: British Architectural Library, Wallace Collection, Tate Britain, Tate Modern

Saturday, July 24: Departure from London

TO APPLY:

Download and complete the application form, found here:
<http://www.arlisna.org/organization/com/intrel/app-uk.pdf>

Mail applications and $350 deposit to:
Elizabeth Darocha Berenz
ARTstor
151 E. 61st Street
New York, NY 10065

Please make checks payable to "ARLIS/NA".

Due no later than May 24, 2010