ARLIS/NA Announces Winners of the 2023 Conference Travel Awards

WESTFORD, Massachusetts – The Art Libraries Society of North America (ARLIS/NA) is pleased to announce the winners of the ARLIS/NA Conference Travel Awards for 2023.

The Conference Attendance Award was created to encourage participation in ARLIS/NA by helping to offset conference attendance costs for committee members, chapter officers, and moderators of divisions, sections, and round tables . The 2023 winner is:

Eboni Jones-Stewart
Manager of Academic Resources
Memorial Art Gallery
University of Rochester

The Student Conference Attendance Award was created to encourage participation in ARLIS/NA by assisting students considering a career in art librarianship or visual resources to attend the annual ARLIS/NA conference. The 2023 winner is:

Caroline Meyers
Master of Library and Information Science Student
Valdosta State University

The Judith A. Hoffberg Student Conference Attendance Award, given annually in honor of the founding of ARLIS/NA and its first president, was created to encourage students considering a career in art librarianship or visual resources to participate in the activities of ARLIS/NA. The 2023 winner is:

Mitra Fakhrashrafi
Master of Library and Information Science Student
University of Toronto

The Student Diversity Award for Conference Attendance was created to encourage students from a traditionally underrepresented background considering a career in art librarianship or visual resources to attend the annual ARLIS/NA conference. The 2023 winner is:

Mackenzie Williams
Master in Library and Information Sciences
Drexel University
Art & Architecture Librarian
Cooper Union Library

The Howard Karno Award was created to encourage the professional development of art librarians who work to advance the study of Latin American art through interaction with ARLIS/NA colleagues and conference participation. The 2023 winner is:

Isamar Abreu
Art and Music Librarian
University of Puerto Rico

Congratulations to all travel award recipients!

Thank you to the members of the ARLIS/NA Travel Awards Subcommittee: Courtney Stine (chair), Jenna Dufour, Stephanie Beene, and Giana Ricci.

About the Art Libraries Society of North America

Founded in 1972, the Art Libraries Society of North America (ARLIS/NA) is a dynamic, international organization of close to 1,000 individuals devoted to fostering excellence in art and design librarianship and image management in the United States, Canada and Mexico. The membership includes architecture and art librarians, visual resources professionals, artists, curators, educators, publishers, students, and others interested in visual arts information. To serve this diverse constituency, the Society provides a wide range of programs and services within an organizational structure that encourages participation at every level.
