

Title Histories of the Periodical Literature of Art & Design
-2015-

Compiled by: Hillary B. Veeder

This index is an effort to bring together, record, and present the title histories of the periodical literature for the art & design disciplines. The Title Histories of Periodical Literature of Art & Design endeavors to provide a foundational, descriptive record of the literature - with a primary emphasis on defining the title relationships and publishing histories of the periodicals.

For the purpose of this index, art & design subjects include but are not limited to: architecture, interior design, urban planning, archaeology, landscape architecture, decorative art, graphic design, fashion, craft, folk art, fine art (painting, sculpture, multi-media) and more.

Publication lists from the mainstream, academic subject-specific online indexes and databases were consulted as the initial means of title identification and inclusion. These databases include: Art and Architecture Complete, Art Full-Text (H.W. Wilson), Art Index Retrospective (H.W. Wilson), ARTbibliographies Modern, Arts & Humanities Citation Index, Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals, Bibliography of the History of Art (BHA), Design and Applied Arts Index (DAAD), and International Bibliography of Art (IBA). At present, the index contains more than 5,300 titles. Alternate formats (online, internet, CD-ROM) and alternate language editions are counted as individual titles.

The ISSN International Centre (CIEPS)¹ subscription register, also known as the *ISSN Portal*², served as the main authoritative, bibliographic source for the compilation of this index. Its use was deemed appropriate given the charge of the CIEPS and the International ISSN Network to manage, maintain and assign ISSN numbers and descriptive, bibliographic information for periodical publications; the Portal also maintains individual records for titles, similar to institutional and cooperative cataloging protocol. Serial records from OCLC's WorldCat were used as additional, secondary sources; specifically, records with Library of Congress holdings and/or records with the most institutional holdings attached, were used to verify publishing years or other descriptive title elements when needed.

Multiple complementary resources to this index exist - Ulrich's Periodical Directory (print and online), the Serials Directory (EBSCO) – but these resources require subscriptions and are intended to be used more so for acquisition purposes rather than as a comprehensive record of the periodical literature and title publishing relationships. In addition, Title Histories represents a preliminary step towards establishing an authoritative record, free from vendor control, and cooperatively managed and maintained by information professionals for the primary purpose of documentation, rather than access.

This index is not exhaustive, and although the current format may suggest otherwise, this index cannot and should not be a static record. Many opportunities exist for future content and descriptive enhancements such as the inclusion of additional titles not represented in the above databases. Enhanced bibliographic description can also be undertaken and could grow to include publisher information, volume and issue numeration, listing of analyzed titles, and other descriptive elements deemed appropriate.

This index is not free from human error and a formal mechanism for editing and maintenance of the index is not yet in place. Annual or biannual review of the index should be considered. Future plans and effort to transition the index into a more flexible format – ideally, an online database – are planned and will better facilitate future editing, enhancements, and collaboration.

Organization of the Index

I. Table of Contents for Title Index

The table of contents is arranged in alphabetical order by title proper and/or by key title, with ISSN number included when known. The table of contents provides a standard alphabetical listing of all titles with page number references.

Table of Contents Text Formatting Defined:

Descriptive Element	Formatting	Notes
Title Proper	Bold
Key Title	Italic
Key Title	Bold-Italic	Title Proper unknown or not defined
Undetermined Title Status	Plain	No ISSN or no additional, contextual title information available

Example TOC Entry	Formatting
Art documentation [0730-7187]	Title Proper [ISSN]
Casabella. Casabella (1965) [0008-7181]	Title Proper. Key Title [ISSN]
Irish architectural and decorative studies [1393-7979]	Key Title [ISSN]
Women Artists Slide Library newsletter	Undetermined title status and/or unknown ISSN number

II. Title Index – Individual & Grouped Title Entries

The title index is comprised of individual and grouped periodical title entries, arranged in alphabetical order by the title proper, if included; if not, then by the key title.

Individual Title Entry	A title has not had any: (known) title changes and/or does not have an additional format or any related, supplemental or translation titles associated with it.
Grouped Title Entry	Titles with: additional formats, titles that are or have translation entries, supplements or related titles, and lastly, titles that have undergone title changes, that is, continues, continued by, merged with, superseded, separated from, etc.

The first title for a grouped entry dictates where all other related titles are arranged alphabetically within the index, and is intended to be the title with the most recent publishing history, whether active or inactive, and/or is the title associated with the ISSN-L.

A written description outlining the relationship of each title to the other is contained at the bottom of each grouped entry. Titles and ISSN numbers are used in combination with traditional cataloging language for serial and continuing resource publications that have undergone title changes (continues, continued by, merged with, etc.) to explicitly define the relationships of the title entries.

Title Entry Text Formatting Defined:

Descriptive Element	Formatting	Notes
Title Proper	Bold
Key Title	Italic

Key Title	Bold-Italic	Title Proper unknown or not defined
Undetermined Title Status	Bold	No ISSN and no additional, contextual title information available
Abbreviated Title	Plain	Abbreviation of Key Title (denoted by use of periods)

Order of Bibliographic Information for Title Entries:

Listed below is the standard ordering of descriptive fields for most title entries. There are instances where certain fields are omitted due to (current) lack of information, in which case, the ordering of the known descriptive information adheres to the same sequence, simply with one or certain descriptive fields excluded for the entry.

1	Author and/or Issuing Body
2	[ISSN] / [ISSN-L] and Cancelled ISSNs (if relevant)
3	Title Proper
4	Key Title
5	Abbreviated Title
6	Parallel Title
7	Alternate Title, Variant Title, Cover Title, Spine Title, etc.
8	Years of Publication
9	Frequency / Language

1. Author and/or Issuing Body – no designation is made between author and/or issuing body entries.
2. ISSN / ISSN-L and Cancelled ISSNs – the first ISSN number listed is the primary ISSN associated with the title, the second ISSN listed is the ISSN-L or linking ISSN; the ISSN-L groups various formats of the same serial

7. Alternate Title, Variant Title, Cover Title, Spine Title, etc. – titles that are not designated as the title proper, key title, abbreviate title or parallel title are listed, with no designation made
8. Years of Publication – activate titles are listed as “Year - ” or starting year of publication to the present; inactive or ceased titles are listed as “Year – Year” or starting year of publication to ending year of publication; the letter “u” is used in instances where the century, decade or individual year digit(s) are not known
9. Frequency / Language – frequency denotes the publishing schedule of the periodical and definitions are provided below; publications with irregular or unknown publishing frequencies will state “Unknown”; preceding the slash is the language; publications that include multiple languages will list the language(s) and/or have the designation “multiple languages”

Title Relationship Language:

Relationship	Title A	Title B
Absorbed Absorbed by	Title A absorbed Title B	Title B was absorbed by Title A
Continues Continued by	Title A continues Title B	Title B is continued by Title A
Continues in part Continued in part by	Title A continues in part Title B	Title B is continued in part by Title A
Merged with	Title A merged with Title B	Title B merged with Title A
Merged with to form	Title A merged with Title B to form Title A or B or C	Title B merged with Title A to form Title A or B or C
Separated from	Title A separated from Title B	Title B separated from Title A
Split into	Title A split into Title B (and Title C)
Supersedes	Title A supersedes Title B	Title B is superseded by Title A
