

A Long and Proud History of Serving Southern Arizona

Dr. Ian Roark

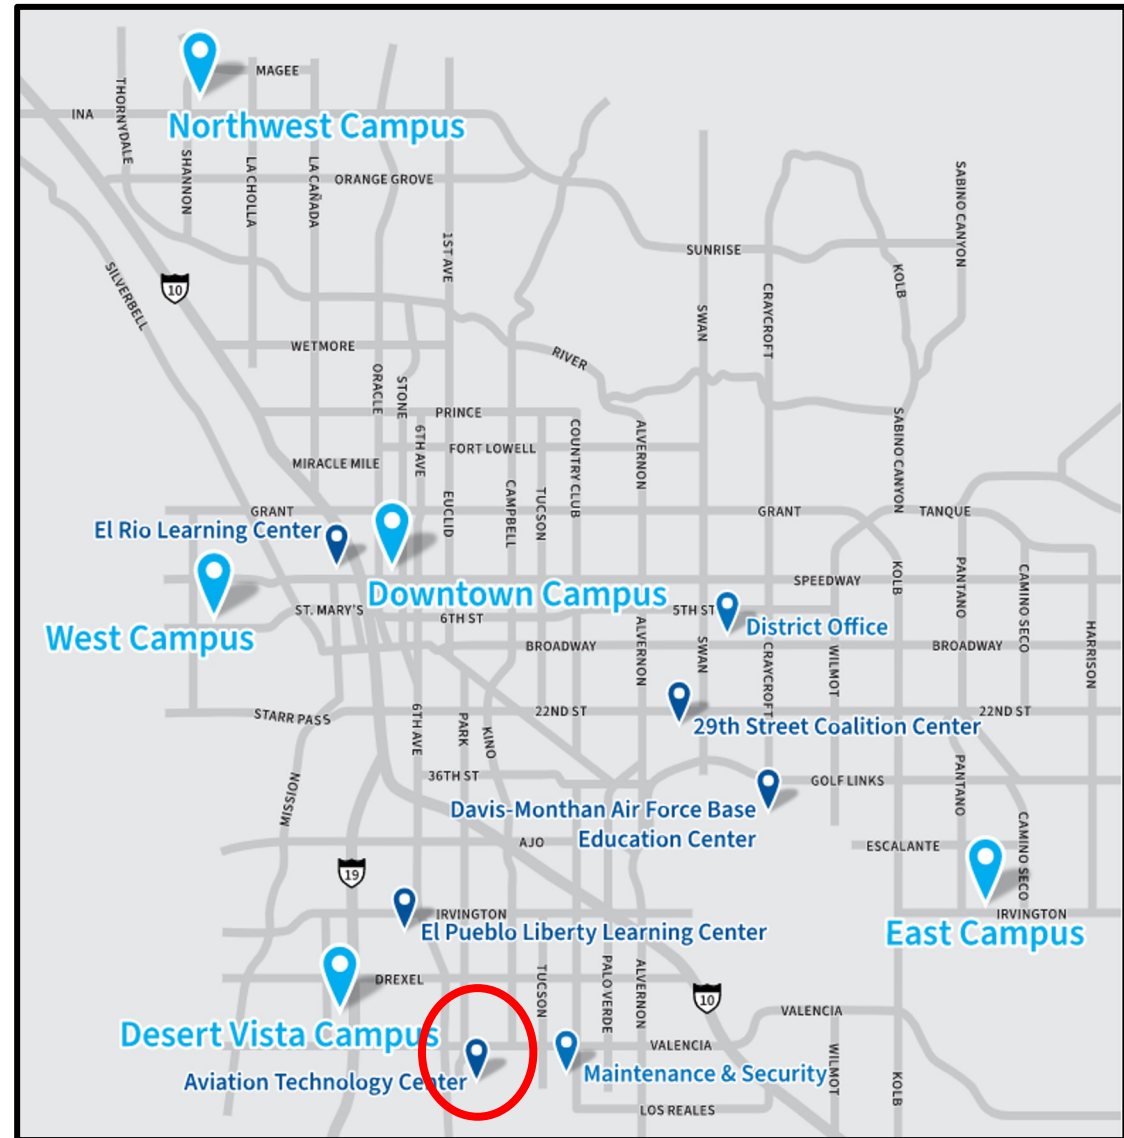

Vice Chancellor of Workforce Development & Innovation

Make Someday Today

About Pima

- Founded in 1969
- Serves all of Pima County + Santa Cruz
- 35,000 Learners
- 5 Campuses
- Multiple Centers
- Comprehensive Community College
- Average Age: 28
- Part-time Learners: 70%
- Hispanic-Serving Institution

About Pima

- Founded in 1969
- Serves all of Pima County + Santa Cruz
- 35,000 Learners
- 5 Campuses
- Multiple Centers
- Comprehensive Community College
- Average Age: 28
- Part-time Learners: 70%
- Hispanic-Serving Institution

Pima Community College Belongs to You

1 of 5: Exemplary U.S. community college in workforce development

Top 150: Community Colleges

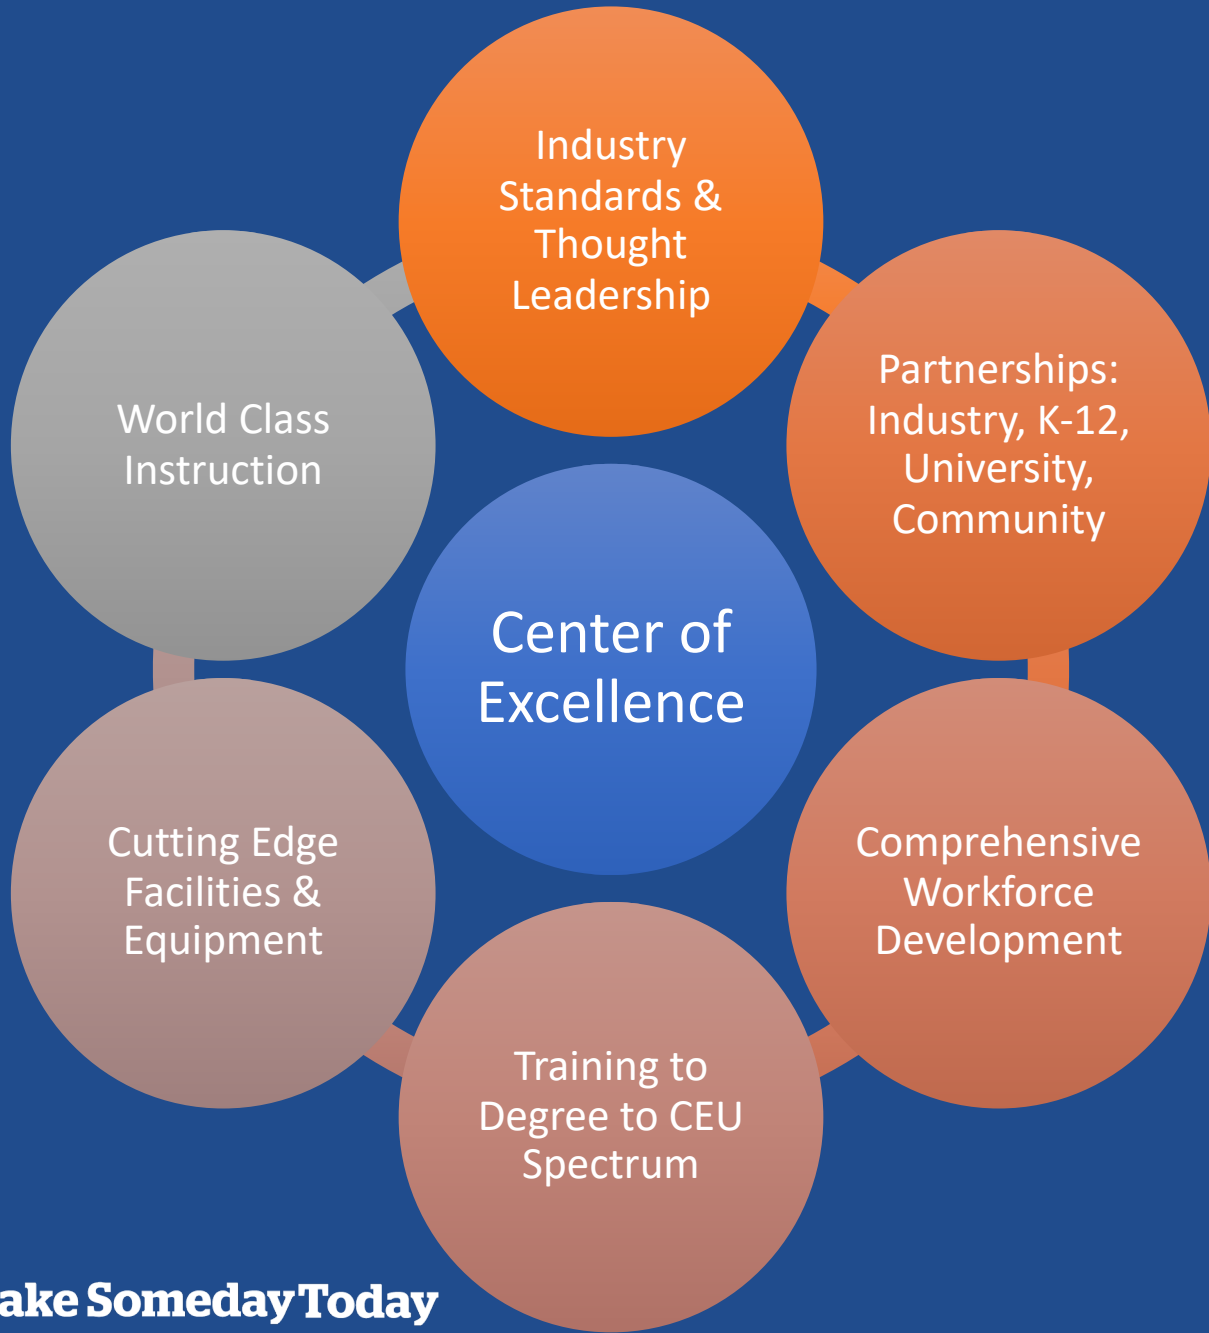

Forbes

11th Best: Employer in Arizona

MOODY'S

Aa2: Bond Rating

Make Someday Today

Applied Technology
IT/Cybersecurity
Health Professions
Hospitality Management
Public Safety & Security
Fine & Performing Arts
STEM

Make Someday Today

Serving Our Current & Future Workforce

Make Someday Today

Workforce Development Today
Workforce Development in an Economic Development Context
Demographics of Age
New Models for New Majority
Learners
Strategic Plan 2021-2026 and
beyond

Pima CC's Aviation Technology Center

Make Someday Today

History Pt. 1

1969: Pima CC and Aviation Tech

1982-2000: Multiple locations and program development

2000-2004: The establishment of the Aviation Technology Center

2005-2012: Program growth and setting the stage for the future

History Pt. 2

2015: NC3 Partnership

2016: AAMP UP and Part 65 (TAACCCT funded)

2019: $15 million state appropriation to help fund the ATC expansion

2020-2022: Construction

2023-Present: New programs and on-ramps

The Future

Make Someday Today

Economic Development/Growth
Program Size
New Models and Non-Credit
Workforce Training
PAAST program development with
Davis-Monthan
National Security & Workforce
Development

Questions?

Make Someday Today