Kevlon H. Kirkpatrick has over twenty one years of experience working as a Law Enforcement Officer, is the current Secretary with the Florida Design Out Crime Association (www.FLDOCA.com) and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from the College of Staten Island.

He is certified by the Office of the Attorney General as a Florida Crime Prevention Practitioner, a Florida Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design Practitioner (CPTED), a School Resource Officer (SRO) and Convenience Business Inspector. The Valencia College Criminal Justice Institute has also certified him as a Physical Fitness Trainer, a General Instructor and a Defensive Tactics Instructor. Kevlon and his business partner Audra have completed CPTED assessments for a private school, healthcare facilities, and an international air cargo company.

Kevlon has completed such courses as Basic and Advanced CPTED, Basic, Residential and Commercial Crime Prevention, CPTED for Hospitals and Carver Vulnerability Assessment and Autism Awareness Training for Law Enforcement Officers. Kevlon is the 2010 American Society for Industrial Security (ASIS) Crime Prevention Officer of the Year Award winner. Kevlon has conducted several hundred residential security surveys, as well as CPTED surveys for commercial institutions.

Kevlon is an instructor for Business & Legal Resources (BLR), presented at the Workplace Violence Prevention Symposium (March 2016) and conducts webinar training for BLR. He is an instructor for the Florida Crime Prevention Training Institute (FCPTI) and taught at the Florida Crime Prevention Practitioner Update class (Feb. 2015). He has been a speaker at the 2018 International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) conference, 2018 Florida MGMA Conference, the 2017 HSLI Workplace Violence Symposium, the 17th International Crime Free Conference (July 2015), the 2014 Church Network Conference (formally called National Association of Church Business Administration) and the 2014 Southern States Crime Prevention Conference. Kevlon also teaches at the Florida Department of Health annual training sessions and at the 2013 Preventing Crime in the Black Community.

The September/October (2016) Vol. 30 Edition of Talk of the Towns & Topics features an article written by Kevlon and Audra Rigby (his business partner). The article pertains to Shootings at Town Halls and CPTED and was recently interviewed for a crime prevention article in the December 2017 issue of Buildings Magazine (<https://www.buildings.com/article-details/articleid/21405/title/who-s-watching-your-facility->).
