Impactful Communication

People are the No. 1 resource in every organization and keeping misunderstandings to a minimum creates a more positive workplace environment. It is not just about what you say, but also how you say it. Understanding the unique communication styles of individuals and how to better prepare for conversations allows us to reduce drama in the workplace.

Through this 90-minute session, participants will utilize our Communication Compass tool to explore communication styles and investigate new ways of understanding communication with others. Through various activities and discussions, participants will be able to put the tool into practice learning to adapt their communication to improve effectiveness. We will also discuss the importance of setting expectations at the workplace, such as professionalism, etiquette, and more.

Learning Objectives:
1. Participants will identify their personal communication style.
2. Participants will explore all four styles and discuss the impacts these have on our conversations with others.
3. Participants will identify the different situations in which expectations need to be set.
4. Participants will create an action plan for improving communication, professionalism, and etiquette at the workplace.

The cost for this session is $2,500 which includes the speaker fee and all travel expenses.
