15 TRANG HO,

17 v.

18 GAVIN NEWSOM, in his official capacity
19 as Governor of the State of California;
20 ROB BONTA, in his official capacity as
21 Attorney General of the State of California;
22 and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive,

Case No.: 2:21-cv-01394-JAM-JDP

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF, AND DAMAGES

[42 U.S.C. § 1983]

INTRODUCTION

2 1. This is a federal civil rights challenge to a California law, Assembly Bill
3 832, that purports to indefinitely bar owners of rental property in the State of California
4 from repossessing their units for tenants’ failure to pay rent, based only on tenants’ self-
5 certification of financial distress and even when tenants have the means to pay rent. AB
6 832 is the latest extension of a statewide moratorium on evictions dating back to March 7 2020.

8 2. By eliminating an owner’s right to repossess his property for a tenant’s 9 failure to pay rent based solely on a tenant’s self-certification of reduced income or 10 increased expenses—which the owner cannot meaningfully challenge—the moratorium
11 violates an owner’s Due Process rights under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United 12 States Constitution. Further, the moratorium violates owners’ property rights, including 13 the rights to lawfully exclude and repossess property, in violation of the Takings Clause.
14 Moreover, the moratorium rewrites and substantially impairs existing leases and rental
15 agreements, without adequate justification, in violation of the Contracts Clause of 16 Constitution.

17 3. Plaintiffs are an association of rental housing owners, as well as individual 18 landlords, who—for over one year—have been severely burdened financially and 19 emotionally by a seemingly never-ending eviction moratorium, with AB 832 as the 20 most recent iteration of the same.

21 4. Plaintiffs seek relief from enforcement of AB 832 and future similar laws
22 that continue or impose an unconstitutional moratorium on the right of rental housing 23 owners to repossess their properties for nonpayment of rent.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24
25 5. This action is brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, based on Defendants’
26 deprivation of the constitutional rights of Plaintiffs under the Fifth and Fourteenth
27 Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as under Article I, Section 10,
28 Clause 1 of the United States Constitution. Accordingly, this Court has federal question

1 jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343. This Court has authority to grant
2 the requested declaratory and injunctive relief, and damages, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §
3 2201, 28 U.S.C. § 1343(a), and 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and to award attorneys' fees and costs
4 pursuant to, inter alia, 42 U.S.C. § 1988.

5 6. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(1) and 6 (2), because Defendants are located within this district and a substantial part of the 7 events giving rise to Plaintiffs' claims occurred in this district.

8 PARTIES

9 7. Plaintiff California Rental Housing Association (CalRHA) represents over 10 19,000+ dues-paying members who own more than 536,000+ units. Members consist 11 of small, medium, and large rental housing owners throughout the State of California.
12 All of CalRHA's members are impacted by AB 832, which guts their rental agreements
13 and leases, and severely burdens their property rights. Members are ready, willing, and 14 able to repossess their units for tenants' failure to pay rent, but are barred from doing
15 so because of AB 832. CalRHA brings this challenge on behalf of itself and its members
16 to vindicate their civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

17 8. Plaintiff Mary Montano is 77 years old, and a California citizen and 18 resident. She lives on $1,700 Social Security income and the income from a duplex that 19 she owns and still has a mortgage on. She rented half of her duplex to an architect who 20 has a fancy website boasting of million-dollar projects. He recently did a road trip with 21 his three children to see historical landmarks. Yet he has refused to pay rent for the past
22 16 months. While he has submitted to Ms. Montano a declaration self-certifying to 23 alleged financial distress related to COVID, he refuses to complete the paperwork to 24 apply for rental assistance, because he knows he would not qualify given the income
25 and wealth he has. The other ½ of the duplex is paying; however, that is only enough to 26 cover the mortgage on the property. Ms. Montano had to take out a substantial loan to 27 pay her property taxes. She doesn't know what she is going to do next if she cannot 28 evict the nonpaying tenant and replace him with a paying tenant. The lease with the

1 nonpaying tenant makes clear she has the right to evict and repossess the property for 2 failure to pay rent. Beyond the economic harm, she has been suffering enormous mental 3 and emotional distress as the direct result of her inability to rent out her property to 4 paying tenants.

5 9. Plaintiff Trang Ho owns rental units in the City of Los Angeles. One unit
6 has a tenant who hasn't paid rent since January 2021; another tenant in the same unit
7 hasn't paid rent since June 2020. In another rental property owned by Ms. Ho, there is
8 a tenant who has refused to pay rent since March 2021. All were provided a declaration
9 of COVID-19-related financial distress form, which they have not filled out. There is 10 no evidence that any of the nonpaying tenants lacks the means to pay rent. Ms. Ho's 11 leases executed by the nonpaying tenants contain a provision recognizing the right of 12 eviction and repossession for failure to pay rent. Ms. Ho has been suffering significant 13 mental and emotional distress as the direct result of her inability to rent out her property
14 to paying tenants.

15 10. Defendant GAVIN NEWSOM is sued in his official capacity as Governor
16 of the State of California. He is charged with the executive power of the State, including 17 the responsibility to "see that the law"—including AB 832—"is faithfully executed."
18 Cal. Const. art. V, § 1.

19 11. Defendant ROB BONTA is sued in his official capacity as Attorney
20 General of the State of California. The Attorney General's responsibilities include
21 enforcing the laws, including AB 832.

22 12. Plaintiffs are ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendants sued
23 herein as DOES 1 through 20 and therefore sue Defendants by such fictitious names.
24 Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that each of the fictitiously
25 named Defendants is in some manner responsible or liable for the events and 26 happenings referred to herein, and that each such fictitiously named Defendant caused 27 injury and damage to Plaintiffs as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiffs will amend or 28 seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of

1 such fictitiously named Defendants when the same are ascertained.

2 13. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that at all relevant
3 times, each of the Defendants was the agent of each of the remaining Defendants and,
4 in doing the things hereinafter alleged, was acting within the course and scope of such 5 agency or employment.

6 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

7 14. On August 31, 2020, purportedly in response to the COVID-19 pandemic,
8 the Governor signed into law Assembly Bill (“AB”) 3088. AB 3088 was intended to 9 provide “temporary” protections from eviction for residents who fail to pay the rent that 10 came due between March 1, 2020, and January 31, 2021.

11 15. Relevantly, AB 3088 rewrites leases and burdens the property rights of 12 rental housing owners as follows:

13 a. A tenant who submits a so-called declaration of COVID-19-related 14 financial distress (“COVID declaration”) claiming decreased income or 15 increased expenses due to the COVID-19 pandemic, is automatically
16 protected against eviction for rent due between March 1, 2020 and August 17 31, 2020. No owner who receives that declaration, regardless of its 18 truthfulness and regardless of the tenant’s actual ability to pay rent, can 19 exercise his contract and property rights to repossess his unit for 20 nonpayment of rent coming due between March and August 2020.

21 b. A tenant who submits a COVID declaration and pays 25 percent of 22 payments missed between September 1, 2020, and January 31, 2021, is 23 automatically protected against eviction. No owner who receives that 24 declaration and 25% of rental payments missed during that time period,
25 regardless of the declaration’s truthfulness and regardless of the tenant’s
26 actual ability to pay full rent, can exercise his contract and property rights 27 to repossess his unit for nonpayment of rent coming due between 28 September 2020 and January 2021.

1 c. Beyond submitting a signed COVID declaration to the owner, a tenant who 2 wishes to be protected against eviction under AB 3088 does not need to 3 actually prove inability to pay. At most, the tenant can be required to 4 produce evidence only of a decrease in income or increase in expenses due
5 to COVID-19. Thus, even independently wealthy tenants who experience
6 a decrease in income or an increase in expenses due to COVID (however 7 minor), but who can easily make rental payments in full during the relevant 8 time periods, can defer those payments and shield themselves from 9 eviction.

10 16. On January 29, 2021, the Governor signed into law Senate Bill (“SB”) 91,
11 which extends AB 3088’s eviction moratorium.

12 17. Relevantly, SB 91 rewrites leases and burdens the property rights of rental
13 housing owners as follows: Under SB 91, a tenant who submits a COVID declaration
14 and pays 25 percent of payments missed between September 1, 2020, and June 30,
15 2021, in whole or in part, is automatically protected against eviction. No owner who 16 receives that declaration and 25% of rental payments missed during that time period,
17 regardless of the declaration’s truthfulness and regardless of the tenant’s actual ability 18 to pay full rent, can exercise his contract and property rights to repossess his unit for 19 nonpayment of rent coming due between September 2020 and June 2021.

20 18. On June 11, 2021, with the COVID-19 pandemic substantially subsiding,
21 the Governor took action to fully reopen the State. The Governor lifted pandemic 22 executive orders, including terminating the stay-at-home order implemented early in the 23 pandemic. Effective June 15, state-wide restrictions, such as physical distancing and 24 capacity limits, also were lifted. Further, between June 2020—in the throes of the 25 COVID-19 pandemic—and June 2021, the State’s unemployment rate has been nearly 26 halved from 14.1% to 7.7%.

27 19. Nevertheless, on June 28, 2021, the Governor signed AB 832, further 28 extending the eviction moratorium for an additional three months. A true and correct

1 copy of AB 832 is attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference.

2 20. AB 832 rewrites leases and burdens the property rights of rental housing
3 owners as follows: A tenant who submits a COVID declaration and pays 25 percent of 4 payments missed through September 30, 2021, in whole or in part, is automatically
5 protected against eviction. No owner who receives that declaration and 25% of rental
6 payments missed during that time period, regardless of the declaration's truthfulness
7 and regardless of the tenant's actual ability to pay full rent, can exercise his contract
8 and property rights to repossess his unit for nonpayment of rent coming due between 9 September 2020 and September 2021.

10 21. CalRHA's members and individual Plaintiffs own rental properties in the 11 State of California with nonpaying tenants. Frequently, those nonpaying tenants have 12 been financially capable of paying the full rent during the pandemic, but were able to 13 evade the obligation to pay by virtue of the State's generous eviction moratorium most 14 recently extended by AB 832. While the economic impact on rental housing owners of 15 such a moratorium is self-evident, the moratorium has also inflicted untold mental and 16 emotional injury on owners as they grapple with the financial implications of not being 17 able to make ends meet.

18 22. Many rental housing owners, including individual Plaintiffs and Plaintiff
19 CalRHA's members, will never recover the unpaid rents that have accumulated during 20 the moratorium. Further, even those owners who recover some or all of the unpaid rents 21 will have been compelled, by law, to give tenants interest-free loans for the period of 22 time during which rents went unpaid, because the law does not provide for the payment
23 of interest on delayed rent payments.

24 FIRST CLAIM

25 Violation of the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution

26 (U.S. Const. amend. XIV; 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

27 23. Plaintiffs incorporate herein by reference each and every allegation
28 contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

1 24. The Due Process Clause prohibits a state from “depriv[ing] any person of 2 life, liberty, or property, without due process of law.” U.S. Const. amend. XIV. At its 3 core, due process requires that a person deprived of a property interest be given “some 4 form of hearing” and “the opportunity to be heard.” Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319,
5 333 (1976). Further, “no man can be a judge in his own case consistent with the Due
6 Process Clause.” Chrysaftis v. Marks, 594 U.S. ____ (August 12, 2021) (internal citation
7 and quotation marks omitted).

8 25. Under the State’s moratorium, a tenant’s mere filing of a self-certification 9 of financial distress, without more, terminates a rental housing owner’s right to 10 repossess his property.

11 26. An owner who receives such a self-certification cannot meaningfully
12 challenge it in order to restore his right to repossess his property. Said owner is afforded
13 no hearing or opportunity to be heard as to the veracity, legitimacy, or adequacy of a 14 tenant’s self-certification that said tenant cannot pay rent, or will not pay rent despite 15 the financial means to do so.

16 27. The State’s moratorium allows a tenant to be a judge in his own case by 17 allowing the tenant’s self-certification to terminate an owner’s right to evict for 18 nonpayment of rent, and “precludes a landlord from contesting that certification and 19 denies the landlord a hearing” as to said certification. Chrysaftis, 594 U.S. _____. “This 20 scheme violates the [United States Supreme] Court’s longstanding teaching that 21 ordinarily no man can be a judge in his own case consistent with the Due Process
22 Clause.” Id.

23 28. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law and will suffer serious and
24 irreparable harm to their constitutional rights unless Defendants are immediately
25 enjoined from implementing and enforcing AB 832, and any extension of the existing
26 moratorium or a new eviction moratorium enacted by the State in the future.

SECOND CLAIM

Violation of the Takings Clause of the United States Constitution

(U.S. Const. amends. V, XIV; 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

4 29. Plaintiffs incorporate herein by reference each and every allegation
5 contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

6 30. The Takings Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States
7 Constitution prohibits the government from taking private property unless (a) it is for a
8 “public use” and (b) “just compensation” is paid to the property owner. U.S. Const.
9 amend. V, XIV (making Takings Clause applicable to state and local governments); see
10 also Brown v. Legal Foundation of Washington, 538 U.S. 216, 231-32 (2003)
11 (underscoring the Takings Clause’s two separate requirements). The Takings Clause
12 was enshrined in the Constitution so that the government would not “force some people 13 alone to bear public burdens which, in all fairness and justice, should be borne by the 14 public as a whole.” Armstrong v. United States, 364 U.S. 40, 49 (1960).

15 31. If the government “fails to meet the ‘public use’ requirement,” then “that 16 is the end of the inquiry,” and “[n]o amount of compensation can authorize such action.”
17 Lingle v. Chevron U.S.A. Inc., 544 U.S. 528, 543 (2005). A government taking of 18 property for a private use or purpose is barred. As the United States Supreme Court has 19 explained: “it has long been accepted that the sovereign” (i.e., the government) “may 20 not take the property of A for the sole purpose of transferring it to B.” Kelo v. City of 21 New London, 545 U.S. 469, 477 (2005); Calder v. Bull, 3 U.S. 386 (1798). (holding that 22 “[i]t is against all reason and justice” to presume that the legislature has been entrusted 23 with the power to enact “a law that takes property from A and gives it to B”)).

24 32. “Nor would the [government] be allowed to take property under the mere 25 pretext of a public purpose, when its actual purpose was to bestow a private benefit.”
26 Kelo, 545 U.S. at 478. If a taking is designed simply “to benefit a particular class of 27 identifiable individuals,” then the taking is not for a “public use” consistent with the 28 Public Use Clause, and is therefore unconstitutional. Id. Significantly, takings with only

1 an “incidental” public benefit “are forbidden by the Public Use Clause.” Id. at 490
2 (Kennedy, J., concurring); see also Loretto v. Teleprompter Manhattan Catv Corp., 458
3 U.S. 419 (1982) (holding that a “taking” under the Takings Clause occurs even when,
4 under the authority of law, “a stranger directly invades and occupies the owner’s
5 property” and does not pass to or through the government’s hands).

6 33. AB 832 imposes a moratorium on evictions for nonpayment of rent,
7 effectively transferring the fundamental right to exclude from owners to nonpaying
8 tenants. Further, AB 832 eliminates, for an indefinite period of time, owners’ right to 9 make economically beneficial and productive use of their rental properties, because the 10 law indefinitely deprives owners of the only legal remedy they have to guarantee a 11 reasonable return on their investment: the right to terminate a tenancy and evict a tenant
12 for nonpayment of rent.

13 34. Through its moratorium on evictions, AB 832 effects a per se taking of 14 rental housing owners’ properties, because it indefinitely grants tenants near-
15 unqualified access to and use of the properties, as well as the right to exclude owners.
16 See, e.g., Loretto v. Teleprompter Manhattan CATV Corp., 458 U.S. 419, 434–35
17 (1982) (regulation requiring property owner to allow cable company to install cable 18 facilities on his property effects a per se taking).

19 35. In the alternative, AB 832 effects a categorical regulatory taking under 20 Lucas v. South Carolina Coastal Council, 505 U.S. 1003 (1992), because it deprives
21 owners of all “economically beneficial” or “viable” use of their properties. At a 22 minimum, AB 832 effects a noncategorical regulatory taking under Penn Central
23 Transp. Co. v. New York City, 438 U.S. 104 (1978), because: (1) the moratorium’s
24 “economic impact” on rental housing owners is devastating, given their right to lawfully
25 repossess their properties for nonpayment of rent is for all practical intents and purposes
26 eliminated; (2) the extent to which the law has interfered with distinct investment-27 backed expectations, based on existing law and rental agreements, is substantial; and 28 (3) the character of Defendants’ action—enforcement of a law that confers no

1 reciprocity of advantage, but rather penalizes owners to the exclusive benefit of 2 tenants—weighs decisively in favor of finding a taking.

3 36. The taking effected by the moratorium is unconstitutional under the Fifth
4 Amendment, for two reasons. First, the taking is not for a public use or purpose. The 5 moratorium’s express purpose and effect are to benefit “a particular class of identifiable
6 individuals”—namely, tenants. Kelo, 545 U.S. at 478. As such, the moratorium violates 7 the Public Use requirement of the Takings Clause.

8 37. Second, AB 832 provides no immediate or adequate mechanism for 9 compensating owners for the loss of their property rights. The moratorium eliminates 10 housing owners’ full rights to possess, use, and exclude, pursuant to their existing rental
11 agreements and the Constitution. Yet AB 832 provides no immediate and adequate
12 compensation for the taking. AB 832 is at total cross-purposes with the Takings Clause,
13 which is intended to ensure that government does not “force some people alone to bear
14 public burdens which, in all fairness and justice, should be borne by the public as a 15 whole.” Armstrong, 364 U.S. at 49.

16 38. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law and will suffer serious and
17 irreparable harm to their constitutional rights unless Defendants are immediately
18 enjoined from implementing and enforcing AB 832, and any extension of the existing 19 moratorium or a new eviction moratorium enacted by the State in the future.

20 THIRD CLAIM

21 Violation of the Contracts Clause of the United States Constitution

22 (U.S. Const. Art. I, § 10, cl. 1; 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

23 39. Plaintiffs incorporate herein by reference each and every allegation
24 contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint, as though fully set forth herein.

25 40. The Contracts Clause of the United States Constitution prohibits local 26 governments from passing “any . . . Law impairing the Obligation of Contracts.” U.S.
27 Const., Art. I, §10, cl. 1. Contracts Clause violations are actionable under 42 U.S.C. §
28 1983. Southern California Gas Co. v. City of Santa Ana, 336 F.3d 885, 887 (9th Cir.

1 2003) (“The right of a party not to have a State, or a political subdivision thereof, impair
2 its obligations of contract is a right secured by the first article of the United States
3 Constitution. A deprivation of that right may therefore give rise to a cause of action
4 under section 1983.”).

5 41. Whether a law substantially impairs a contractual relationship depends
6 upon “the extent to which the law undermines the contractual bargain, interferes with a 7 party’s reasonable expectations, and prevents the party from safeguarding or reinstating
8 his rights.” Sveen v. Melin, 138 S. Ct. 1815, 1822 (2018). First, the court will determine
9 whether the law “operate[s] as a substantial impairment of a contractual relationship.”
10 Allied Structural Steel Co. v. Spannaus, 438 U.S. 234, 244 (1978). “In answering that 11 question, the Court has considered the extent to which the law undermines the 12 contractual bargain, interferes with a party’s reasonable expectations, and prevents the 13 party from safeguarding or reinstating his rights.” Sveen, 138 S. Ct. at 1822. Second, 14 the court considers “whether the [challenged] law is drawn in an ‘appropriate’ and 15 ‘reasonable’ way to advance ‘a significant and legitimate public purpose.’” Sveen, 138
16 S. Ct. at 1822 (quoting Energy Reserves Group, Inc. v. Kansas Power & Light Co., 459 17 U.S. 400, 411-412 (1983)).

18 42. Here, AB 832 substantially impairs the contractual relationship between 19 rental housing owners and their tenants. Individual plaintiffs and members of CalRHA
20 have leases entitling owners to repossess units when rent is not paid. The law has 21 rewritten the lease to eliminate that contract right for an indefinite period of time. While 22 the initial moratorium, enacted by AB 3088, was conceived of as a temporary measure, 23 subsequent statutory extensions of the moratorium make clear that the elimination of 24 the eviction right will persist for an indefinite period of time. AB 832 undermines the 25 contractual bargain that is the hallmark of all rental agreements, including the 26 agreements of individual plaintiffs and CalRHA members.

27 43. In addition, AB 832 significantly interferes with owners’ reasonable
28 expectations. No rental housing owner, including individual plaintiffs and CalRHA’s

1 members, could ever have foreseen or expected the COVID-19 pandemic (the State's
2 purported justification for the moratorium) and or the extent to which governments (like
3 the State) would use those extraordinary circumstances to justify crippling restrictions
4 on their livelihoods as owners, and violations of their rights under existing rental
5 agreements and the United States Constitution. Never before have rental housing
6 owners faced the prospect of being compelled by law to indefinitely house tenants
7 irrespective of payment of rent.

8 44. Because AB 832 substantially impairs contracts, Defendants bear the 9 burden of showing that the impairment is both reasonable and necessary. Defendants
10 cannot meet that burden. AB 832 cites the COVID-19 pandemic as its justification. But,
11 as the State knows, the spread and effects of COVID-19 have dramatically waned, as 12 evidenced by the Governor's lifting of COVID-related executive orders on June 11.
13 There being no bone fide emergency, Defendants cannot establish that the substantial 14 impairment of housing owners' rental agreements is reasonable or necessary.

15 45. In sum, AB 832 unilaterally rewrites all rental agreements within the State
16 to eliminate the contractual right to repossess units for nonpayment of rent, without any 17 attempt to tie such wholesale revisions to the COVID-19 pandemic. Even if there were 18 a legitimate purpose behind AB 832, which there is not, the complete obliteration of the 19 contract rights of individual plaintiffs and CalRHA's members is not a reasonable or 20 necessary means of achieving that purpose. Accordingly, the contractual impairments
21 effectuated by AB 832 violate the Contracts Clause and are unconstitutional.

22 46. In enforcing AB 832 to Plaintiffs and other rental housing owners, 23 Defendants are acting under color of law. Defendants' conduct in adopting and 24 enforcing that law has deprived and, unless enjoined, will continue to deprive owners
25 of their rights, privileges, and immunities secured by the United States Constitution
26 and/or laws of the United States to which owners are entitled.

27 47. Unless Defendants are enjoined and restrained from enforcing AB 832, 28 and any extension of the existing moratorium or a new eviction moratorium enacted by

1 the State in the future, Plaintiffs and other owners will be irreparably injured. They are
2 and will be deprived of rights guaranteed under the United States Constitution.

3 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

4 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request relief as follows:

5 1. A declaratory judgment that AB 832 is null and void, and of no effect,
6 because it deprives rental housing owners, including individual Plaintiffs and 7 CalRHA's members, of the rights, privileges, and immunities secured by the United
8 States Constitution, as follows:

9 a. It violates the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the 10 United States Constitution.

11 b. It effects an unconstitutional taking of private property, in violation of 12 the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

13 c. It violates the Contracts Clause of Article I, section 10, of the 14 Constitution.

15 2. A temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunction enjoining
16 Defendants, and all those in active concert or participation with them, from 17 implementing or enforcing AB 832, as well as any similar statutory extension or other 18 law enacted in the future that continues or otherwise imposes a moratorium on the right

[Approved by Governor June 28, 2021. Filed with Secretary of State June 28, 2021.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 832, Chiu. COVID-19 relief: tenancy: federal rental assistance.

(1) Existing law prohibits a landlord from interrupting or terminating utility service furnished to a tenant with the intent to terminate the occupancy of the tenant and imposes specified penalties on a landlord who violates that prohibition. Existing law, until July 1, 2021, imposes additional damages in an amount of at least $1,000, but not more than $2,500, on a landlord that violates that prohibition if the tenant has provided a declaration of COVID-19 financial distress, as specified.

This bill would extend the imposition of those additional damages until October 1, 2021.

(2) Existing law regulates the activities of a person or entity that has bought charged-off consumer debt, as defined, for collection purposes and the circumstances pursuant to which the person may bring suit. Existing law, until July 1, 2021, prohibits a person from selling or assigning unpaid COVID-19 rental debt, as defined, for the time period between March 1, 2020, and June 30, 2021. Existing law also prohibits a person from selling or assigning unpaid COVID-19 rental debt, as defined, for that same time period of any person who would have qualified for rental assistance funding, provided pursuant to specified federal law, if the person's household income is at or below 80% of the area median income for the 2020 calendar year.

This bill would extend the time period to which both prohibitions against selling or assigning unpaid COVID-19 rental debt apply to September 30, 2021, and would repeal only the general prohibition on October 1, 2021. The bill would extend the calculation of the median income to the 2021 calendar year.

(3) Existing law, until July 1, 2021, prohibits a landlord from bringing an action for unlawful detainer based on a cause of action other than nonpayment of COVID-19 rental debt, as defined, for the purpose of retaliating against the lessee because the lessee has COVID-19 rental debt.

This bill would extend this provision until October 1, 2021.

Case 2:21-cv-01394-JAM-JDP Document 4 Filed 08/13/21 Page 17 of 53

(4) Existing law, the COVID-19 Small Landlord and Homeowner Relief Act of 2020, among other things, requires that a mortgage servicer, as defined, that denies a forbearance request during the effective time period provide specified written notice to the borrower, as defined, that sets forth the specific reason or reasons that forbearance was not provided if certain conditions are met. The act defines the "effective time period" to mean the period between the operational date of the act and September 1, 2021.

This bill would extend the "effective time period" until December 1, 2021.

(5) Existing law, until July 1, 2025, provides that a small claims court has jurisdiction in any action for recovery of COVID-19 rental debt, as defined, regardless of the amount demanded. Existing law prohibits the commencement of an action to recover COVID-19 rental debt brought under these provisions before August 1, 2021.

This bill would extend these provisions until October 1, 2025. The bill would also extend the above-described prohibition on commencing an action in small claims court to recover COVID-19 rental debt until November 1, 2021.

(6) Existing law, until July 1, 2027, requires a plaintiff, in an action seeking recovery of COVID-19 rental debt, to attach to the complaint documentation showing that the plaintiff has made a good faith effort to investigate whether governmental rental assistance is available to the tenant, seek governmental rental assistance for the tenant, or cooperate with the tenant's efforts to obtain rental assistance from any governmental entity or other third party, as specified. Existing law, until July 1, 2027, also authorizes the court to reduce the damages awarded for any amount of COVID-19 rental debt sought if the court determines that the landlord refused to obtain state rental assistance, as described below, if the tenant met the eligibility requirements and funding was available. Existing law creates an exception to that authorization within any jurisdiction that received a direct allocation of assistance from the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to the federal Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 and did not accept a block grant pursuant to the rental assistance program described below, as specified. Existing law requires, subject to a certain exception, an action subject to that provision that was pending as of January 29, 2021, to be stayed until July 1, 2021.

This bill would repeal the exception to the damage reduction authorization described above, would instead require those actions to be stayed until November 1, 2021, and would extend these provisions until October 1, 2027.

Existing law, until July 1, 2025, prohibits a court from awarding attorney's fees that exceed specified amounts, which vary based on whether the matter is contested or uncontested, in any action to recover COVID-19 rental debt, as defined, brought as a limited or unlimited civil case under ordinary circumstances, determined as provided.

This bill would extend those provisions until October 1, 2025.

(7) Existing law, in certain actions involving the possession of real property, including unlawful detainer actions, authorizes the clerk to allow access to limited civil case records only to certain persons. Existing law authorizes the clerk to allow access to these records to any person by order of the court, if judgment is entered for the plaintiff after trial more than 60 days after filing the complaint or 60 days after the complaint has been filed, if the plaintiff prevails in the action within 60 days of filing the complaint. Until July 1, 2021, these provisions allowing access to court records to any person do not apply if the plaintiff filed the action between March 4, 2020, and June 30, 2021, and the action is based on the alleged default in the payment of rent. Subject to those provisions, until July 1, 2021, existing law authorizes the clerk to allow access to civil case records for actions seeking recovery of COVID-19 rental debt, as defined, only to certain persons.

This bill would, among other things, extend the exception described above indefinitely and would apply it to actions filed between March 4, 2020, and September 30, 2021, and would extend indefinitely the limitation on access to civil case records for actions seeking recovery of COVID-19 rental debt. The bill would require the Judicial Council to develop forms for parties to utilize in actions brought for recovery of COVID-19 rental debt.

(8) Existing law, the COVID-19 Tenant Relief Act, until July 1, 2025, establishes procedural requirements and limitations on evictions for nonpayment of rent due to COVID-19 rental debt, as defined. The act, among other things, prohibits a tenant that delivers a declaration, under penalty of perjury, of COVID-19-related financial distress from being deemed in default with regard to the COVID-19 rental debt, as specified.

The act requires that a notice that demands payment of COVID-19 rental debt served pursuant to specified law be modified, as provided. The act requires that notices provided between September 1, 2020, and June 3, 2021, comply with certain requirements, including that the notice include certain text. The act requires the Department of Real Estate to make available an official translation of that text into certain languages by no later than February 15, 2021.

This bill would extend the operation of the COVID-19 Tenant Relief Act to October 1, 2025, and would also extend operation of those requirements until September 30, 2021. The bill would also make conforming changes and would require notices described above that are served on or after July 1, 2021, to include certain text. The bill would instead require the Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) to make available, on or before July 15, 2021, the official translation described above.

(9) Existing law establishes a program for providing rental assistance, using funding made available pursuant to the federal Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 (Appropriations Act), administered by HCD. Existing law, among other things, provides for the allocation of block grant funds to localities, as defined, that meet certain population requirements. Existing law requires an eligible grantee under these provisions to request an allocation from HCD by February 12, 2021, and requires HCD to complete the initial allocation of these funds no later than February 19, 2021. Existing law authorizes eligible uses of funds allocated to grantees under these provisions, consistent with the requirements of the Appropriations Act. Existing law provides that a grantee may provide assistance for rental arrears as a payment directly to a landlord on behalf of an eligible household by entering into an agreement with the landlord, subject to specified conditions, including that compensation be set at 80% of an eligible household's unpaid rental debt accumulated from April 1, 2020, to March 31, 2021. Existing law limits funds used to provide assistance for prospective rent payments for an eligible household to 25% of the eligible household's monthly rent.

This bill would revise and recast those provisions, including revisions to the state allocation of funds. The bill would specify requirements for Round 1 and Round 2 funds, as defined. This bill would, among other things, set the compensation for an eligible household's unpaid rental debt accumulated on or after April 1, 2020 at 100%. This bill would require funds used to provide assistance for prospective rent payments for an eligible household to be set at 100% of the eligible household's monthly rent. The bill would specify requirements for grantees and eligibility for rental assistance.

This bill would enact the COVID-19 Rental Housing Recovery Act, which would, until September 30, 2024, among other things, place certain restrictions on an unlawful detainer action pertaining to residential real property that is based, in whole or in part, on nonpayment of rental debt that accumulated due to COVID-19 hardship, including by prohibiting a court from issuing a summons on a complaint for unlawful detainer that seeks possession of residential real property based on nonpayment of rental debt that accumulated due to COVID-19 hardship unless the plaintiff also files a statement, under penalty of perjury, that the plaintiff attempted to obtain rental assistance pursuant to a program described above and was denied and a copy of a final decision, as defined, from the pertinent government rental assistance program denying a rental assistance application for the property at issue in the case.

Existing law, in a legal action to recover rent or other financial obligations under a lease that accrued between April 1, 2020, and June 30, 2021, requires, before entry of judgment in the plaintiff's favor, the plaintiff to verify certain information, under penalty of perjury, relating to state rental assistance.

This bill would apply those provisions to rent or other financial obligations under a lease that accrued between April 1, 2020, and September 30, 2021.

By expanding the scope of the crime of perjury, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(10) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

(11) Existing constitutional provisions require that a statute that limits the right of access to the meetings of public bodies or the writings of public officials and agencies be adopted with findings demonstrating the interest protected by the limitation and the need for protecting that interest.

This bill would make legislative findings to that effect.

(12) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

SEC. 4. Section 1942.5 of the Civil Code, as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 2 of the Statutes of 2021, is amended to read:

1942.5. (a) If the lessor retaliates against the lessee because of the exercise by the lessee of the lessee's rights under this chapter or because of the lessee's complaint to an appropriate agency as to tenability of a dwelling, and if the lessee of a dwelling is not in default as to the payment of rent, the lessor may not recover possession of a dwelling in any action or proceeding, cause the lessee to quit involuntarily, increase the rent, or decrease any services within 180 days of any of the following:

(1) After the date upon which the lessee, in good faith, has given notice pursuant to Section 1942, has provided notice of a suspected bed bug infestation, or has made an oral complaint to the lessor regarding tenability.

(2) After the date upon which the lessee, in good faith, has filed a written complaint, or an oral complaint which is registered or otherwise recorded in writing, with an appropriate agency, of which the lessor has notice, for the purpose of obtaining correction of a condition relating to tenability.

(3) After the date of an inspection or issuance of a citation, resulting from a complaint described in paragraph (2) of which the lessor did not have notice.

(4) After the filing of appropriate documents commencing a judicial or arbitration proceeding involving the issue of tenability.

(5) After entry of judgment or the signing of an arbitration award, if any, when in the judicial proceeding or arbitration the issue of tenability is determined adversely to the lessor.

In each instance, the 180-day period shall run from the latest applicable date referred to in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive.

(b) A lessee may not invoke subdivision (a) more than once in any 12-month period.

(c) To report, or to threaten to report, the lessee or individuals known to the landlord to be associated with the lessee to immigration authorities is a form of retaliatory conduct prohibited under subdivision (a). This

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), it is unlawful for a lessor to increase rent, decrease services, cause a lessee to quit involuntarily, bring an action to recover possession, or threaten to do any of those acts, for the purpose of retaliating against the lessee because the lessee has lawfully organized or participated in a lessees' association or an organization advocating lessees' rights or has lawfully and peaceably exercised any rights under the law. It is also unlawful for a lessor to bring an action for unlawful detainer based on a cause of action other than nonpayment of COVID-19 rental debt, as defined in Section 1179.02 of the Code of Civil Procedure, for the purpose of retaliating against the lessee because the lessee has a COVID-19 rental debt. In an action brought by or against the lessee pursuant to this subdivision, the lessee shall bear the burden of producing evidence that the lessor's conduct was, in fact, retaliatory.

(e) To report, or to threaten to report, the lessee or individuals known to the landlord to be associated with the lessee to immigration authorities is a form of retaliatory conduct prohibited under subdivision (d). This subdivision shall in no way limit the definition of retaliatory conduct prohibited under this section.

(f) This section does not limit in any way the exercise by the lessor of the lessor's rights under any lease or agreement or any law pertaining to the hiring of property or the lessor's right to do any of the acts described in subdivision (a) or (d) for any lawful cause. Any waiver by a lessee of the lessee's rights under this section is void as contrary to public policy.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive, a lessor may recover possession of a dwelling and do any of the other acts described in subdivision (a) within the period or periods prescribed therein, or within subdivision (d), if the notice of termination, rent increase, or other act, and any pleading or statement of issues in an arbitration, if any, states the ground upon which the lessor, in good faith, seeks to recover possession, increase rent, or do any of the other acts described in subdivision (a) or (d). If the statement is controverted, the lessor shall establish its truth at the trial or other hearing.

(h) Any lessor or agent of a lessor who violates this section shall be liable to the lessee in a civil action for all of the following:

(1) The actual damages sustained by the lessee.

(2) Punitive damages in an amount of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) for each retaliatory act where the lessor or agent has been guilty of fraud, oppression, or malice with respect to that act.

(i) In any action brought for damages for retaliatory eviction, the court shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party if either party requests attorney's fees upon the initiation of the action.

(j) The remedies provided by this section shall be in addition to any other remedies provided by statutory or decisional law.

(k) A lessor does not violate subdivision (c) or (e) by complying with any legal obligation under any federal government program that provides for rent limitations or rental assistance to a qualified tenant.

(l) This section shall remain in effect until October 1, 2021, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 1942.5 of the Civil Code, as amended by Section 6 of Chapter 2 of the Statutes of 2021, is amended to read:

(1) After the date upon which the lessee, in good faith, has given notice pursuant to Section 1942, has provided notice of a suspected bed bug infestation, or has made an oral complaint to the lessor regarding tenantability.

(2) After the date upon which the lessee, in good faith, has filed a written complaint, or an oral complaint which is registered or otherwise recorded in writing, with an appropriate agency, of which the lessor has notice, for the purpose of obtaining correction of a condition relating to tenantability.

(3) After the date of an inspection or issuance of a citation, resulting from a complaint described in paragraph (2) of which the lessor did not have notice.

(4) After the filing of appropriate documents commencing a judicial or arbitration proceeding involving the issue of tenantability.

(5) After entry of judgment or the signing of an arbitration award, if any, when in the judicial proceeding or arbitration the issue of tenantability is determined adversely to the lessor.

In each instance, the 180-day period shall run from the latest applicable date referred to in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive.

(b) A lessee may not invoke subdivision (a) more than once in any 12-month period.

(c) To report, or to threaten to report, the lessee or individuals known to the landlord to be associated with the lessee to immigration authorities is a form of retaliatory conduct prohibited under subdivision (a). This subdivision shall in no way limit the definition of retaliatory conduct prohibited under this section.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), it is unlawful for a lessor to increase rent, decrease services, cause a lessee to quit involuntarily, bring an action to recover possession, or threaten to do any of those acts, for the purpose of retaliating against the lessee because the lessee has lawfully organized or participated in a lessees' association or an organization advocating lessees' rights or has lawfully and peaceably exercised any rights under the law. In an action brought by or against the lessee pursuant to this subdivision, the lessee shall bear the burden of producing evidence that the lessor's conduct was, in fact, retaliatory.

(e) To report, or to threaten to report, the lessee or individuals known to the landlord to be associated with the lessee to immigration authorities is a form of retaliatory conduct prohibited under subdivision (d). This subdivision shall in no way limit the definition of retaliatory conduct prohibited under this section.

(f) This section does not limit in any way the exercise by the lessor of the lessor's rights under any lease or agreement or any law pertaining to the hiring of property or the lessor's right to do any of the acts described in subdivision (a) or (d) for any lawful cause. Any waiver by a lessee of the lessee's rights under this section is void as contrary to public policy.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive, a lessor may recover possession of a dwelling and do any of the other acts described in subdivision (a) within the period or periods prescribed therein, or within subdivision (d), if the notice of termination, rent increase, or other act, and any pleading or statement of issues in an arbitration, if any, states the ground upon which the lessor, in good faith, seeks to recover possession, increase rent, or do any of the other acts described in subdivision (a) or (d). If the statement is controverted, the lessor shall establish its truth at the trial or other hearing.

(h) Any lessor or agent of a lessor who violates this section shall be liable to the lessee in a civil action for all of the following:

(1) The actual damages sustained by the lessee.

(2) Punitive damages in an amount of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) for each retaliatory act where the lessor or agent has been guilty of fraud, oppression, or malice with respect to that act.

(i) In any action brought for damages for retaliatory eviction, the court shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party if either party requests attorney's fees upon the initiation of the action.

(j) The remedies provided by this section shall be in addition to any other remedies provided by statutory or decisional law.

(k) A lessor does not violate subdivision (c) or (e) by complying with any legal obligation under any federal government program that provides for rent limitations or rental assistance to a qualified tenant.

(l) This section shall become operative on October 1, 2021.

SEC. 6. Section 3273.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3273.1. For purposes of this title:

(a) (1) "Borrower" means any of the following:

(A) A natural person who is a mortgagor or trustor or a confirmed successor in interest, as defined in Section 1024.31 of Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(2) "Borrower" shall not include an individual who has surrendered the secured property as evidenced by either a letter confirming the surrender or delivery of the keys to the property to the mortgagee, trustee, beneficiary, or authorized agent.

(3) Unless the property securing the mortgage contains one or more deed-restricted affordable housing units or one or more affordable housing units subject to a regulatory restriction limiting rental rates that is contained in an agreement with a government agency, the following mortgagors shall not be considered a "borrower":

(A) A real estate investment trust, as defined in Section 856 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) (1) "Mortgage servicer" or "lienholder" means a person or entity who directly services a loan or who is responsible for interacting with the borrower, managing the loan account on a daily basis, including collecting and crediting periodic loan payments, managing any escrow account, or enforcing the note and security instrument, either as the current owner of the promissory note or as the current owner's authorized agent.

(2) "Mortgage servicer" or "lienholder" also means a subservicing agent to a master servicer by contract.

(3) "Mortgage servicer" shall not include a trustee, or a trustee's authorized agent, acting under a power of sale pursuant to a deed of trust.

SEC. 7. Section 116.223 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116.223. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(1) There is anticipated to be an unprecedented number of claims arising out of nonpayment of residential rent that occurred between March 1, 2020, and September 30, 2021, related to the COVID-19 pandemic.

(2) These disputes are of special importance to the parties and of significant social and economic consequence collectively as the people of the State of California grapple with the health, economic, and social impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.

(3) It is essential that the parties have access to a judicial forum to resolve these disputes expeditiously, inexpensively, and fairly.

(4) It is the intent of the Legislature that landlords of residential real property and their tenants have the option to litigate disputes regarding rent which is unpaid for the time period between March 1, 2020, and September 30, 2021, in the small claims court. It is the intent of the Legislature that the jurisdictional limits of the small claims court not apply to these disputes over COVID-19 rental debt.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) Section 116.220, Section 116.221, or any other law, the small claims court has jurisdiction in any action for recovery of COVID-19 rental debt, as defined in Section 1179.02, and any defenses thereto, regardless of the amount demanded.

(2) In an action described in paragraph (1), the court shall reduce the damages awarded for any amount of COVID-19 rental debt sought by payments made to the landlord to satisfy the COVID-19 rental debt, including payments by the tenant, rental assistance programs, or another third party pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 1947.3 of the Civil Code.

(3) An action to recover COVID-19 rental debt, as defined in Section 1179.02, brought pursuant to this subdivision shall not be commenced before November 1, 2021.

(c) Any claim for recovery of COVID-19 rental debt, as defined in Section 1179.02, shall not be subject to Section 116.231, notwithstanding the fact that a landlord of residential rental property may have brought two or more small claims actions in which the amount demanded exceeded two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) in any calendar year.

(d) This section shall remain in effect until October 1, 2025, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 871.10 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

871.10. (a) In any action seeking recovery of COVID-19 rental debt, as defined in Section 1179.02, the plaintiff shall, in addition to any other requirements provided by law, attach to the complaint documentation showing that the plaintiff has made a good faith effort to investigate whether governmental rental assistance is available to the tenant, seek governmental rental assistance for the tenant, or cooperate with the tenant's efforts to obtain rental assistance from any governmental entity, or other third party pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 1947.3 of the Civil Code.

(b) In an action subject to subdivision (a), the court may reduce the damages awarded for any amount of COVID-19 rental debt, as defined in Section 1179.02, sought if the court determines that the landlord refused to obtain rental assistance from the state rental assistance program created pursuant to Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 50897) of Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, if the tenant met the eligibility requirements and funding was available.

(c) An action to recover COVID-19 rental debt, as defined in Section 1179.02, that is subject to this section shall not be commenced before November 1, 2021.

(d) Subdivisions (a) through (c), inclusive, shall not apply to an action to recover COVID-19 rental debt, as defined in Section 1179.02, that was pending before the court as of January 29, 2021.

(e) Except as provided in subdivision (g), any action to recover COVID-19 rental debt, as defined in Section 1179.02, that is subject to this section and is pending before the court as of January 29, 2021, shall be stayed until November 1, 2021.

(f) This section shall not apply to any unlawful detainer action to recover possession pursuant to Section 1161.

(g) (1) Actions for breach of contract to recover rental debt that were filed before October 1, 2020, shall not be stayed and may proceed.

(2) This subdivision does not apply to actions filed against any person who would have qualified under the rental assistance funding provided through the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to Section 501 of Subtitle A of Title V of Division N of the federal Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 (Public Law 116-260) if the person's household income is at or below 80 percent of the area median income for the 2020 or 2021 calendar year.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to entitle the prevailing party to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees if that award is not otherwise provided for by law or agreement.

(d) This section shall remain in effect until October 1, 2025, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 871.12 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

871.12. This chapter shall remain in effect until October 1, 2027, and as of the date is repealed.

(F) Except as provided in subparagraph (G), to any other person 60 days after the complaint has been filed if the plaintiff prevails in the action within 60 days of the filing of the complaint, in which case the clerk shall allow access to any court records in the action. If a default or default judgment is set aside more than 60 days after the complaint has been filed, this section shall apply as if the complaint had been filed on the date the default or default judgment is set aside.

(G) (i) In the case of a complaint involving residential property based on Section 1161a as indicated in the caption of the complaint, as required in subdivision (c) of Section 1166, to any other person, if 60 days have elapsed since the complaint was filed with the court, and, as of that date, judgment against all defendants has been entered for the plaintiff, after a trial.

(ii) Subparagraphs (E) and (F) shall not apply if the plaintiff filed the action between March 4, 2020, and September 30, 2021, and the action is based on an alleged default in the payment of rent.

(b) (1) For purposes of this section, "good cause" includes, but is not limited to, both of the following:

(A) The gathering of newsworthy facts by a person described in Section 1070 of the Evidence Code.

(B) The gathering of evidence by a party to an unlawful detainer action solely for the purpose of making a request for judicial notice pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 452 of the Evidence Code.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature that a simple procedure be established to request the ex parte order described in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(c) Upon the filing of a case so restricted, the court clerk shall mail notice to each defendant named in the action. The notice shall be mailed to the address provided in the complaint. The notice shall contain a statement that an unlawful detainer complaint (eviction action) has been filed naming that party as a defendant, and that access to the court file will be delayed for 60 days except to a party, an attorney for one of the parties, or any

(3) The following statement:

(4) The name and telephone number of an office or offices funded by the federal Legal Services Corporation or qualified legal services projects that receive funds distributed pursuant to Section 6216 of the Business and Professions Code that provide legal services to low-income persons in the county in which the action is filed. The notice shall state that these telephone numbers may be called for legal advice regarding the case. The notice shall be issued between 24 and 48 hours of the filing of the complaint, excluding weekends and holidays. One copy of the notice shall be addressed to "all occupants" and mailed separately to the subject premises. The notice shall not constitute service of the summons and complaint.

(5) The following statement, for a notice sent out pursuant to this section between October 1, 2021 and March 31, 2022:

"IMPORTANT NOTICE FROM THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA – YOU MUST TAKE ACTION TO AVOID AN EVICTION: As part of the state's COVID-19 relief plan, money has been set aside to help renters who have fallen behind on rent or utility payments.

(d) Notwithstanding any other law, the court shall charge an additional fee of fifteen dollars ($15) for filing a first appearance by the plaintiff. This fee shall be added to the uniform filing fee for actions filed under this chapter.

(e) This section does not apply to a case that seeks to terminate a mobilehome park tenancy if the statement of the character of the proceeding in the caption of the complaint clearly indicates that the complaint seeks termination of a mobilehome park tenancy.

- (c) This section does not alter any provision of the Evidence Code.

1179.03. (a) (1) Any notice that demands payment of COVID-19 rental debt served pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 798.56 of the Civil Code or paragraph (2) or (3) of Section 1161 shall be modified as required by this section. A notice which does not meet the requirements of this section, regardless of when the notice was issued, shall not be sufficient to establish a cause of action for unlawful detainer or a basis for default judgment.

(2) Any case based solely on a notice that demands payment of COVID-19 rental debt served pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 798.56 of the Civil Code or paragraph (2) or (3) of Section 1161 may be dismissed if the notice does not meet the requirements of this section, regardless of when the notice was issued.

 date that the notice to pay rent or quit or notice to perform covenants or quit expires, by any of the methods specified in subdivision (f).

(4) The notice shall include the following text in at least 12-point font:

"NOTICE FROM THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA: If you are unable to pay the amount demanded in this notice, and have decreased income or increased expenses due to COVID-19, your landlord will not be able to evict you for this missed payment if you sign and deliver the declaration form included with your notice to your landlord within 15 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and other judicial holidays, but you will still owe this money to your landlord. If you do not sign and deliver the declaration within this time period, you may lose the eviction protections available to you. You must return this form to be protected. You should keep a copy or picture of the signed form for your records.

You will still owe this money to your landlord and can be sued for the money, but you cannot be evicted from your home if you comply with these requirements. You should keep careful track of what you have paid and any amount you still owe to protect your rights and avoid future disputes. Failure to respond to this notice may result in an unlawful detainer action (eviction) being filed against you.

For information about legal resources that may be available to you, visit lawhelpca.org."

(c) If the notice demands payment of rent that came due during the transition time period, as defined in Section 1179.02, the notice shall comply with all of the following:

(1) The time period in which the tenant may pay the amount due or deliver possession of the property shall be no shorter than 15 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and other judicial holidays.

(2) The notice shall set forth the amount of rent demanded and the date each amount became due.

(3) The notice shall advise the tenant that the tenant will not be evicted for failure to comply with the notice, except as allowed by this chapter, if the tenant delivers a signed declaration of COVID-19-related financial distress to the landlord on or before the date the notice to pay rent or quit or notice to perform covenants or quit expires, by any of the methods specified in subdivision (f).

(4) For notices served before February 1, 2021, the notice shall include the following text in at least 12-point type:

"NOTICE FROM THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA: If you are unable to pay the amount demanded in this notice, and have decreased income or increased expenses due to COVID-19, you may sign and deliver the declaration form included with your notice to your landlord within 15 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and other judicial holidays, and your landlord will not be able to evict you for this missed payment so long as you make the minimum payment (see below). You will still owe this money to your landlord. You should keep a copy or picture of the signed form for your records.

If you provide the declaration form to your landlord as described above AND, on or before January 31, 2021, you pay an amount that equals at least 25 percent of each rental payment that came due or will come due during the period between September 1, 2020, and January 31, 2021, that you were unable to pay as a result of decreased income or increased expenses due to COVID-19, your landlord cannot evict you. Your landlord may require you to submit a new declaration form for each rental payment that you do not pay that comes due between September 1, 2020, and January 31, 2021.

For example, if you provided a declaration form to your landlord regarding your decreased income or increased expenses due to COVID-19 that prevented you from making your rental payment in September and October of 2020, your landlord could not evict you if, on or before January 31, 2021, you made a payment equal to 25 percent of September's and October's rental payment (i.e., half a month's rent). If you were unable to pay any of the rental payments that came due between September 1, 2020, and January 31, 2021, and you provided your landlord with the declarations in response to each 15-day notice your landlord sent to you during that time period, your landlord could not evict you if, on or before January 31, 2021, you paid your landlord an amount equal to 25 percent of all the rental payments due from September through January (i.e., one and a quarter month's rent).

You will still owe the full amount of the rent to your landlord, but you cannot be evicted from your home if you comply with these requirements. You should keep careful track of what you have paid and any amount you still owe to protect your rights and avoid future disputes. Failure to respond to this notice may result in an unlawful detainer action (eviction) being filed against you.

(5) For notices served on or after February 1, 2021, and before July 1, 2021, the notice shall include the following text in at least 12-point type:

"NOTICE FROM THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA: If you are unable to pay the amount demanded in this notice, and have decreased income or increased expenses due to COVID-19, you may sign and deliver the declaration form included with your notice to your landlord within 15 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and other judicial holidays, and your landlord will not be able to evict you for this missed payment so long as you make the minimum payment (see below). You will still owe this money to your landlord. You should keep a copy or picture of the signed form for your records.

If you provide the declaration form to your landlord as described above AND, on or before June 30, 2021, you pay an amount that equals at least 25 percent of each rental payment that came due or will come due during the period between September 1, 2020, and June 30, 2021, that you were unable to pay as a result of decreased income or increased expenses due to COVID-19, your landlord cannot evict you. Your landlord may require you to submit a new declaration form for each rental payment that you do not pay that comes due between September 1, 2020, and June 30, 2021.

If you were unable to pay any of the rental payments that came due between September 1, 2020, and June 30, 2021, and you provided your landlord with the declarations in response to each 15-day notice your landlord sent to you during that time period, your landlord could not evict you if, on or before June 30, 2021, you paid your landlord an amount equal to 25 percent of all the rental payments due from September 2020 through June 2021.

You will still owe the full amount of the rent to your landlord, but you cannot be evicted from your home if you comply with these requirements. You should keep careful track of what you have paid and any amount you still owe to protect your rights and avoid future disputes. Failure to respond to this notice may result in an unlawful detainer action (eviction) being filed against you.

YOU MAY QUALIFY FOR RENTAL ASSISTANCE. In addition to extending these eviction protections, the State of California, in partnership with federal and local governments, has created an emergency rental assistance program to assist renters who have been unable to pay their rent and utility bills as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. This program may be able to help you get caught up with past-due rent. Additionally, depending on the availability of funds, the program may also be able to assist you with making future rental payments.

While not everyone will qualify for this assistance, you can apply for it regardless of your citizenship or immigration status. There is no charge to apply for or receive this assistance.

Additional information about the extension of the COVID-19 Tenant Relief Act and new state or local rental assistance programs, including more information about how to qualify for assistance, can be found by visiting <http://housingiskey.com> or by calling 1-833-422-4255.

(6) For notices served on or after July 1, 2021, the notice shall include the following text in at least 12-point type:

NOTICE FROM THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA – YOU MUST TAKE ACTION TO AVOID EVICTION. If you are unable to pay the amount demanded in this notice because of the COVID-19 pandemic, you should take action right away.

IMMEDIATELY: Sign and return the declaration form included with your notice to your landlord within 15 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and other judicial holidays. Sign and return the declaration even if you have done this before. You should keep a copy or a picture of the signed form for your records.

BEFORE SEPTEMBER 30, 2021: Pay your landlord at least 25 percent of any rent you missed between September 1, 2020, and September 30, 2021. If you need help paying that amount, apply for rental assistance. You will still owe the rest of the rent to your landlord, but as long as you pay 25 percent by September 30, 2021, your landlord will not be able to evict you for failing to pay the rest of the rent. You should keep careful track of what you have paid and any amount you still owe to protect your rights and avoid future disputes.

AS SOON AS POSSIBLE: Apply for rental assistance! As part of California's COVID-19 relief plan, money has been set aside to help renters who have fallen behind on rent or utility payments. If you are behind on rent or utility payments, YOU SHOULD COMPLETE A RENTAL ASSISTANCE APPLICATION IMMEDIATELY! It is free and simple to apply. Citizenship or immigration status does not matter. You can find out how to start your application by calling 1-833-430-2122 or visiting <http://housingiskey.com> right away.

(d) An unsigned copy of a declaration of COVID-19-related financial distress shall accompany each notice delivered to a tenant to which subdivision (b) or (c) is applicable. If the landlord was required, pursuant to Section 1632 of the Civil Code, to provide a translation of the rental contract or agreement in the language in which the contract or agreement was negotiated, the landlord shall also provide the unsigned copy of a declaration of COVID-19-related financial distress to the tenant in the language in which the contract or agreement was negotiated. The Department of Housing and Community Development shall make available an official translation of the text required by paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) and paragraphs (4) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (c) in the languages specified in Section 1632 of the Civil Code by no later than July 15, 2021.

(e) If a tenant owes a COVID-19 rental debt to which both subdivisions (b) and (c) apply, the landlord shall serve two separate notices that comply with subdivisions (b) and (c), respectively.

(f) A tenant may deliver the declaration of COVID-19-related financial distress to the landlord by any of the following methods:

(1) In person, if the landlord indicates in the notice an address at which the declaration may be delivered in person.

(2) By electronic transmission, if the landlord indicates an email address in the notice to which the declaration may be delivered.

(3) Through United States mail to the address indicated by the landlord in the notice. If the landlord does not provide an address pursuant to subparagraph (1), then it shall be conclusively presumed that upon the mailing of the declaration by the tenant to the address provided by the landlord, the declaration is deemed received by the landlord on the date posted, if the tenant can show proof of mailing to the address provided by the landlord.

(4) Through any of the same methods that the tenant can use to deliver the payment pursuant to the notice if delivery of the declaration by that method is possible.

(g) Except as provided in Section 1179.02.5, the following shall apply to a tenant who, within 15 days of service of the notice specified in subdivision (b) or (c), excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and other judicial holidays, demanding payment of COVID-19 rental debt delivers a declaration of COVID-19-related financial distress to the landlord by any of the methods provided in subdivision (f):

(1) With respect to a notice served pursuant to subdivision (b), the tenant shall not then or thereafter be deemed to be in default with regard to that COVID-19 rental debt for purposes of subdivision (e) of Section 798.56 of the Civil Code or paragraphs (2) and (3) of Section 1161.

(2) With respect to a notice served pursuant to subdivision (c), the following shall apply:

(A) Except as provided by subparagraph (B), the landlord may not initiate an unlawful detainer action before October 1, 2021.

(B) A tenant shall not be guilty of unlawful detainer, now or in the future, based upon nonpayment of COVID-19 rental debt that came due during the transition period if, on or before September 30, 2021, the tenant tenders one or more payments that, when taken together, are of an amount equal to or not less than 25 percent of each transition period rental payment demanded in one or more notices served pursuant to subdivision (c) and for which the tenant complied with this subdivision by timely delivering a declaration of COVID-19-related financial distress to the landlord.

(h) (1) (A) Within the time prescribed in Section 1167, a tenant shall be permitted to file a signed declaration of COVID-19-related financial distress with the court.

(B) If the tenant files a signed declaration of COVID-19-related financial distress with the court pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall dismiss the case, pursuant to paragraph (2), if the court finds, after a noticed hearing on the matter, that the tenant's failure to return a declaration of COVID-19-related financial distress within the time required by subdivision (g) was the result of mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect, as those terms have been interpreted under subdivision (b) of Section 473.

(C) The notice hearing required by this paragraph shall be held with not less than five days' notice and not more than 10 days' notice, to be given by the court, and may be held separately or in conjunction with any regularly noticed hearing in the case, other than a trial.

(2) If the court dismisses the case pursuant to paragraph (1), that dismissal shall be without prejudice as follows:

(A) If the case was based in whole or in part upon a notice served pursuant to subdivision (b), the court shall dismiss any cause of action based on the notice served pursuant to subdivision (b).

(B) Before October 1, 2021, if the case is based in whole or in part on a notice served pursuant to subdivision (c), the court shall dismiss any cause of action based on the notice served pursuant to subdivision (c).

(C) On or after October 1, 2021, if the case is based in whole or in part on a notice served pursuant to subdivision (c), the court shall dismiss any cause of action based upon the notice served pursuant to subdivision (c) if the tenant, within five days of the court's order to do so, makes the payment required by subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (g), provided that if the fifth day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or judicial holiday the last day to pay shall be extended to the next court day.

(3) If the court dismisses the case pursuant to this subdivision, the tenant shall not be considered the prevailing party for purposes of Section 1032, any attorney's fee provision appearing in contract or statute, or any other law.

(i) Notwithstanding any other law, a notice which is served pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) that complies with the requirements of this chapter and subdivision (e) of Section 798.56 of the Civil Code or paragraphs (2) and (3) of Section 1161, as applicable, need not include specific language required by any ordinance, resolution, regulation, or administrative action adopted by a city, county, or city and county.

(2) A landlord who is required to assist the tenant to relocate pursuant to Section 1946.2 of the Civil Code or any other law, may offset the tenant's COVID-19 rental debt against their obligation to assist the tenant to relocate.

1179.04. (a) On or before September 30, 2020, a landlord shall provide, in at least 12-point type, the following notice to tenants who, as of September 1, 2020, have not paid one or more rental payments that came due during the protected time period:

“NOTICE FROM THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA: The California Legislature has enacted the COVID-19 Tenant Relief Act of 2020 which protects renters who have experienced COVID-19-related financial distress from being evicted for failing to make rental payments due between March 1, 2020, and January 31, 2021.

“COVID-19-related financial distress” means any of the following:

1. Loss of income caused by the COVID-19 pandemic.
2. Increased out-of-pocket expenses directly related to performing essential work during the COVID-19 pandemic.
3. Increased expenses directly related to the health impact of the COVID-19 pandemic.
4. Childcare responsibilities or responsibilities to care for an elderly, disabled, or sick family member directly related to the COVID-19 pandemic that limit your ability to earn income.
5. Increased costs for childcare or attending to an elderly, disabled, or sick family member directly related to the COVID-19 pandemic.
6. Other circumstances related to the COVID-19 pandemic that have reduced your income or increased your expenses.

This law gives you the following protections:

1. If you failed to make rental payments due between March 1, 2020, and August 31, 2020, because you had decreased income or increased expenses due to the COVID-19 pandemic, as described above, you cannot be evicted based on this nonpayment.
2. If you are unable to pay rental payments that come due between September 1, 2020, and January 31, 2021, because of decreased income or increased expenses due to the COVID-19 pandemic, as described above, you cannot be evicted if you pay 25 percent of the rental payments missed during that time period on or before January 31, 2021.

You must provide, to your landlord, a declaration under penalty of perjury of your COVID-19-related financial distress attesting to the decreased income or increased expenses due to the COVID-19 pandemic to be protected by the eviction limitations described above. Before your landlord can seek to evict you for failing to make a payment that came due between March 1, 2020, and January 31, 2021, your landlord will be required to give you a 15-day notice that informs you of the amounts owed and includes a blank declaration form you can use to comply with this requirement.

If your landlord has proof of income on file which indicates that your household makes at least 130 percent of the median income for the county where the rental property is located, as published by the Department of Housing and Community Development in the Official State Income Limits for 2020, your landlord may also require you to provide documentation which shows that you have experienced a decrease in income or increase in expenses due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Your landlord must tell you in the 15-day notice whether your landlord is requiring that documentation. Any form of objectively verifiable documentation that demonstrates the financial impact you have experienced is sufficient, including a letter from your employer, an unemployment insurance record, or medical bills, and may be provided to satisfy the documentation requirement.

It is very important you do not ignore a 15-day notice to pay rent or quit or a notice to perform covenants or quit from your landlord. If you are served with a 15-day notice and do not provide the declaration form to your landlord before the 15-day notice expires, you could be evicted. You could also be evicted beginning February 1, 2021, if you owe rental payments due between September 1, 2020, and January 31, 2021, and you do not pay an amount equal to at least 25 percent of the payments missed for that time period.

Additionally, depending on the availability of funds, the program may also be able to assist you with making future rental payments.

While not everyone will qualify for this assistance, you can apply for it regardless of your citizenship or immigration status. There is no charge to apply for or receive this assistance.

(j) (1) Notwithstanding any other law, except as otherwise provided in subdivision (i), assistance provided to an eligible household for a payment as provided in this chapter or as provided as a direct allocation to grantees from the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to Subtitle A of Title V of Division N of the federal Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 (Public Law 116-260) or Section 3201 of Subtitle B of Title III of the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (Public Law 117-2) shall not be deemed to be income for purposes of the Personal Income Tax Law (Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code) or used to determine the eligibility of an eligible household, or any member of an eligible household, for any state program or local program financed wholly or in part by state funds.

To implement future federal rental assistance, the department shall make corresponding programmatic changes to effectuate the program in compliance with federal law.

(n) Notwithstanding any other law, a third party shall be prohibited from receiving compensation for services provided to an eligible household in applying for or receiving assistance under this chapter, except that this prohibition shall not apply to any contracted entity that renders those services upon the express authorization by the department, the program implementer, or a grantee.
