

To Whom It May Concern:

_____ is a residential housing provider and is responsible for the safety and care of multiple residents. As such the business is deemed essential and the individual in possession of this letter is an employee of _____. Under the newly enacted state of Illinois Shelter in Place order, our employees will still need to report to work.