Want to Earn a Professional Credential? March 20, 2026 | Certification Exam

Earning your credential demonstrates that your knowledge, experience, and decision-making have been validated against rigorous, industry gold standards through formal assessment.

Professionals who pass the exam earn certification through the National Board for Home Care and Hospice Certification (NBHHC®) and may use the respected designations:

- Certified Home Care Manager (CHCM)
- Certified Hospice Manager (CHM)

If you're serious about advancing your leadership, strengthening your professional standing, and differentiating yourself in a competitive market, this is the next step.

Certification exam requires a separate application and registration fee and is not included with the training program. To learn more or apply to sit in the exam, please visit: <https://nbhhc.org/page/aboutcertification>
