Hayes Mansion, 200 Edenvale Ave., San Jose, CA 95136
CALAOMS Member: $350 / Staff of Member: $275

This course is designed to help doctors and staff manage emergencies that may arise in the OMS office.

Reasons to attend this course:

- A preparation course for the GA evaluation required every 5 years
- Satisfy anesthesia requirement for Continuing Education
- Preparation of emergencies that may occur in the office (a way to organize both staff and the office)
- Update on emergency algorithm and a TEAM approach to handling the emergencies

Hands-On Experience for the OMS Emergency Team

This course emphasizes the TEAM approach for managing medical and anesthetic emergencies in the office setting. An effective team approach is essential for preventing morbidity and mortality. This course will focus on an organized treatment approach for scenarios included in the State of California's - General Anesthesia exam. A brief morning lecture will cover updated material in the diagnosis and management of the 13 scenarios tested by the State.

The larger portion of the day will be spent in breakout session. Instructors, consisting of experienced medical emergency lecturers and ACLS instructors, will share their expertise and help prepare your office and staff for emergency preparedness planning.

We encourage our Members to attend with Staff!

Due to the hands-on nature of the course, space is limited to 120 attendees.

Pre-registration is REQUIRED. Walk-ins NOT accepted.
