Editorial Questionnaire for BSCBA Volumes

This questionnaire is due with the submission of your manuscript and should be submitted together with the Marketing Questionnaire and your final manuscript files to BSCBA@cba-site.org. We will not move forward with your project until we have received a completed Editorial Questionnaire and a completed Marketing Questionnaire.

IMPORTANT: The information you provide below will be checked against our current record on file and your actual manuscript. Consistency between the data we have on file and the manuscript is critical, and we will refer to this document as the final authority.

Author/Editor Name(s): [Instructions: if your project includes more than one editor or author, list the names here in the order you want them to appear in the manuscript, on the cover, and in the metadata we send to distributors. If you have two last names please indicate if you want to be referenced by the first of your two last names, otherwise we will use the second last name by default.]

// COVER COPY INFORMATION //

1. Please write a synopsis of fewer than 200 words for the back cover of your book. This should not be a summary of your entire book, but rather should express the purpose and point of your work in a concise and inviting manner. Bear in mind that the purpose of this synopsis is to grab the attention of potential readers who will quickly scan the back of your book. PLEASE NOTE: we reserve the right to edit this content to conform to our house style without prior notification.

2. Please write a short author bio for the back cover of the book using our house style below as the format. If you have already submitted this material, please include it here again. (Please keep your author bio under 75 words.)

For example: John Doe is assistant professor of New Testament at Concordia School of Theology at Chicago. He is the author of This Book Is Not Real (1989).

3. Keywords: Provide between (5) and (7) keywords or phrases related to the subject(s) of your work, separated by commas without spaces: (ex. Pacifism,Massey Lectures,biography,1900s,South America, Social Justice). Please do not give us more than 7.

4. Book Endorsers: Please list up to (5) potential endorsers for your book. Include their name, title, and email address.
