

Report of the Sixty-Fifth International Meeting of the Catholic Biblical Association of America

The sixty-fifth international meeting of the Catholic Biblical Association of America was held August 3–6, 2002, at John Carroll University, University Heights, Ohio. The opening general session was held on Saturday evening, August 3rd. Eugene C. Ulrich, vice-president of the association, announced the sad news of the death of Roland E. Murphy, O.Carm., on July 20, 2002. The membership stood for a moment of silent prayer in tribute to this former president of the CBA. Ulrich then introduced the Reverend Edward Glynn, S.J., president of John Carroll University, who warmly welcomed the members of the association. Francis J. Moloney, S.D.B., president of the association, then delivered the presidential address, “Raymond Brown’s New Introduction to the Gospel of John: A Presentation and Some Questions.”

Sessions on Sunday, August 5

Six task forces and seven continuing seminars met simultaneously each day from 9:00 to 10:45 A.M. The task forces included: “The Historical Jesus and His Earliest Interpreters” (convener: Gregory E. Sterling; core group members in attendance: Harold W. Attridge, Jr.; William R. G. Loader; John P. Meier; Frederick J. Murphy; Seamus O’Connell; Terrence Prendergast, S.J.; Charles H. Talbert); “The Social Sciences and Biblical Interpretation: The Letter to 1 Timothy” (convener: Bruce J. Malina; core group members in attendance: F. Scott Bartchy; Richard J. Cassidy; Richard E. DeMaris; Dennis C. Duling; John H. Elliott; K. C. Hanson; Patrick J. Hartin; Jerome H. Neyrey, S.J.); “Feminist Hermeneutics” (convener: Carol J. Dempsey, O.P.; core group members in attendance: Teresa R. Brown; Joan E. Cook, S.C.; Mary Rose D’Angelo; Barbara Green, O.P.; Mark C. Kiley; Alice L. Laffey; Linda M. Maloney; Sheila McGinn; Elisabeth M. Tetlow); “Exhortation and Theology in 1 Thessalonians” (convener: Normand Bonneau, O.M.I.; core group members in attendance: Richard C. Macey; Ronald L. Tyler); “Hermeneutics: Modernity and Beyond” (co-conveners: Gina Hens-Piazza and David Penchansky; core group members in attendance: A. K. M. Adam; Dianne Bergant, C.S.A.; Claudia Camp; James W. Flanagan; Jean-Pierre Ruiz); “The Gospel of Mark in the 21st Century” (co-conveners: Timothy R. Carmody and Hugh M. Humphrey; core group members in attendance: Charles A. Bobertz; Max Bonilla; Paul Danove; John R. Donahue, S.J.; Sharyn E. Dowd; Edward T. Gareau; Sean P. Kealy, C.S.Sp.; Marie Noël Keller, R.S.M.; Elliott C. Maloney, O.S.B.; Francis J. Moloney, S.D.B.; Michael Patella, O.S.B.; Bonnie B. Thurston).

The continuing seminars and their respective leaders studied: “The Poetry of Psalms 89–93” (Lawrence E. Boadt, C.S.P., and Joseph F. Wimmer, O.S.A.); “Archaeology as Exegesis” (Giorgio Buccellati and Suzanne L. Richard); “The Lucan Passion Narrative”

(John J. Clabeaux and Philip A. Cunningham); "The Value of Instructional Technologies in the Teaching of Sacred Scripture" (John Paul Heil); "Scripture in Early Jewish and Christian Literature" (Robert A. Kugler and John C. Endres, S.J.); "Historical Criticism and the Spiritual Sense of Scripture" (Francis Martin); "Divinity in Ancient Israel" (Corrine Patton and Mark S. Smith).

The morning concluded with papers presented in simultaneous sessions by Steven B. Reid, "Another Look at the Dawn of Apocalyptic: Retrospective on 'Ideology and Utopia' in Isaiah 40–66," and Barbara E. Reid, O.P., "Violent Endings in Matthew's Parables and an End to Violence."

Francis J. Moloney, S.D.B., was principal celebrant and homilist at the eucharistic liturgy at midday. Members of the association who died during the previous year were commemorated at the liturgy: Margaret H. Brown; Matthias Burger; Philip Calderone; Charles Homer Giblin; Gilmore H. Guyot; William G. Heidt; John Huesman; William Lane; Callistus Langerholz; Benjamin Leong; Margaret Mary Loughran; Roger Mercurio; John P. Murray; Roland E. Murphy; Enrique Nardoni; Francis D. Pansini; Anthony Saldarini; and John J. Welch, S.J.

Four sessions of research reports during the afternoon featured the following papers: Jean-Pierre Ruiz, "What's New in Software for Teaching and Research in Biblical Studies?"; Gina Hens-Piazza, "'Why Did Sarah Laugh?': A Cultural Study of Genesis 18"; Joseph C. Atkinson, "Theological Meaning of Water in the Old Testament"; Charles H. Talbert, "Is It with Ethics that the Sermon on the Mount Is Concerned?"; Karl Allen Kuhn, "Beginning the Witness: autoptai kai hypēretai 'Luke 1:2b' Revisited"; Dennis Hamm, S.J., "The Tamid Service as a Clue to Luke's Theology"; John J. Clabeaux, "Socrates and Paul and the 'Death of Paul' in Acts 27–28"; William Klassen, "What Jesus Said to Judas When They Met at His Arrest: Light from a First-century Drinking Glass"; James McIlhone, "What's New on the Net for Teaching and Research in Biblical Studies?"; Ann Marie Kitz, "Dusty Disease and the Plague of Boils in Exod 9:8-12"; John T. Willis, "The Bearing of Intertextual Considerations on the Interpretation of Gen 32:22-32; Exod 4:24-26; Num 22:15-35; Josh 5:2-12; and 1 Sam 4:19-22"; Robert L. Mowery, "Human Fathers in the Gospel of Matthew"; Leonard Maluf, "From Peter and Andrew to Peter and Paul: Luke 5:1-11 in the Light of the Two Gospel Hypothesis"; Elaine Wainwright, "The Lucan Demon-possessed Women: Are They Healers?"; Mary Rose D'Angelo, "Eusebeia: Roman Imperial Family Values and the Sexual Politics of 4 Maccabees and the Pastorals"; David M. Carr, "Variations on a Spectrum: A Survey of Forms of Textual Revision and Stabilization in the Ancient Near East, Greece and Israel"; Felix Just, S.J., "Web Design for Teaching Biblical Studies"; Michael Patrick O'Connor, "The Biblical City"; Robert J. Miller, "Is There a Virginal Conception in Matthew?"; John L. Topel, S.J., "What Kind of a Sign Are Vultures? Luke 17:37"; William S. Kurz, S.J., "Feeding Five Thousand in John 6 and the Eucharist: Spiritual Senses and Actualization"; Jerome H. Neyrey, S.J., "The 'Nature of God' in Romans: God's Attributes and Powers"; Sean P. Kealy, C.S.Sp., "Does the Canonical Order of the Bible Matter?"; Robert Hodgson, "The Open Scripture Information Standards Initiative: Digitizing Biblical Materials"; Alexander A. Di Lella, O.F.M., "Free Will in the Wisdom of Ben Sira: An Exegetical and Theological Study"; Samuel Cheon, "Joseph's Interpretation of the Plagues Story"; Paul Danove, "The Rhetoric of the Characterization of Jesus as Son of Man and Christ in Mark"; Steven L. Bridge, "'Where Eagles are Gathered'; The Deliverance of the Elect in Lucan Eschatology"; Mark Kiley, "Johannine Re-Visions"; Peter S. Williamson, "Catholic Principles for Interpreting Scripture"; Carleen Mandolfo, "How to Interface with INTERFACES."

The evening general session featured a paper by Carolyn A. Osiek, R.S.C.J., "Diakonos and Prostatas: Women's Patronage in Early Christianity."

Sessions on Monday, August 6

The task forces and continuing seminars resumed their work in the morning. Two simultaneous sessions then heard presentations by Toni Craven, "Fearfully Funny: Some Instances in the Deuterocanonical Books," and John P. Meier, "The Historical Jesus and the Historical Law: Problems within the Problem."

Dianne Bergant, C.S.A., presided and preached at our midday prayer.

The general session in the afternoon listened to a panel discussion on "Interpreting the Jewish Bible in the Christian Bible: A Discussion of the PBC's Document, The Jewish People and Their Sacred Scripture in the Christian Bible." The moderator was John R. Donahue, S.J., and the panelists were Donald P. Senior, C.P., Lawrence E. Frizzell, and Amy-Jill Levine.

CBA president Francis Moloney, S.D.B., called the annual business meeting to order at 4:10 P.M. Richard J. Sklba gave the report of the chair of the Board of Trustees on the financial situation of the association. Given the recent market slump, and the fact that our program of grants has continued without stint, there has been a decrease in the Association's portfolio of approximately 8% (compared to a decrease in the S&P index of 17% during the same period). The Board continues to implement the Association's policy of placing up to ten percent of its investments in special projects that promote economic justice and positive social change. Lawrence E. Boadt, C.S.P., treasurer of the association, then presented the treasurer's report, the substance of which had been previously distributed to the members present.

Joseph Jensen, O.S.B., gave the report of the executive secretary. He thanked all who had contributed to the success of this year's meeting, in particular the Local Arrangements Committee, the Program Committee, and the Liturgy Committee, and the president of John Carroll University, the Reverend Edward Glynn, S.J. The Executive Board approved or reaffirmed the following grants: (a) $30,000 for ten Memorial Stipends; (b) $40,000 for two CBA Fellowships; (c) $17,000 for the archaeological project at Tell Qarqur; (d) $18,000 for the dig at Tell Mozan/Urkesh; (e) $40,000 plus travel expenses for the Visiting Professorships at the Pontifical Biblical Institute and the Ecole Biblique; (f) $9,000 for three archaeological research stipends; (g) $2,000 for the Japanese translation project of the Studium Biblicum Franciscanum; (h) a tithe of membership dues ($4,163) for famine relief; (i) $10,000 to the Ecole Biblique in Jerusalem toward the renovation of the library; (j) $5,000 to the Dead Sea Scrolls Foundation; (k) three CBA scholarships at institutions with doctoral programs in biblical studies. The Board also voted to continue to subscribe to Religious Studies Review for members of the association. New guidelines have been approved for the CBQMS; these will be posted on the CBA website. The Board elected Michael Barré, S.S., to the Board of Trustees, and voted to nominate Joseph Blenkinsopp for the Committee on Nominations. Jensen informed the members that the NAB Old Testament revision has been completed. The results are now in the hands of the USCCB, which has sent them to censors for evaluation. A membership supplement to the CBQ is in process, and should be completed later this year. Next year's meeting will be held at the University of San Francisco, August 2-5, 2003. The venue for the 2004 meeting was delayed for discussion under "New Business." All subscribers to CBQ and members of the CBA now have access to fifty years of back issues through the CBA website. The member's customer number functions as the password.

Richard J. Dillon gave the report of the editor of the CBQ. Due to the generous volunteering of Joseph A. Fitzmyer, S.J., Dillon hopes to eliminate the lateness that is plaguing the journal and get all 2002 issues out by the end of the calendar year. This means that the backlog of articles will be almost entirely used up. Members are urged to submit and to solicit from others articles for the CBQ, knowing that the wait time between final acceptance and appearance in print will be quite short. By the end of the current volume, CBQ will have published approximately 26 articles. Fifty-seven articles were received in twelve months. Of these, 11 have been accepted. By the July, 2002, issue, CBQ will have published approximately 239 book reviews. Dillon informed the members that the editorial board has drawn up a procedure for the selection of future editors of CBQ; this procedure will be submitted to the membership for its consideration in the future.

In the absence of Christopher T. Begg, Joseph Jensen, O.S.B., gave the report of the editor of OTA. Both the February and July 2002 issues have appeared and the October issue is at the typesetter. The first two issues of the year have published 1,313 article abstracts, 222 book abstracts, and 2 computer software abstracts. OTA made the move to its new quarters in Caldwell Hall on the campus of Catholic University at the beginning of July 2002, with a minimal disruption of operations. OTA business of all kinds is increasingly being done by email. With the death of Roland Murphy, OTA lost its all-time champion abstractor. R.I.P.

Mark S. Smith gave the report of the editor of CBQMS. One volume, which was in press at the time of last year's meeting, has appeared, and two more volumes appeared this year as well. One further volume is in press, another has been accepted for publication, one has been submitted for evaluation, and six queries have been received about works in progress. Updated guidelines for the series have been submitted to the Executive Board and will be posted on the CBA website. Smith urged the members to submit manuscripts for consideration, particularly in New Testament studies.

The list of candidates for membership in the association was not read, since it had been available to the members throughout the meeting. In the name of the committee on credentials, Alexander A. Di Lella, O.F.M., recommended the following candidates:

Gaventa, Gina Hens-Piazza, Peter Machinist, and Paula M. McNutt; Committee on Nominations, 2002–2006: Joseph Blenkinsopp. The membership elected the slate by unanimous voice vote.

For the Committee on Resolutions, Gregory Sterling proposed a resolution thanking the Rev. Edward Glynn, S.J., president of John Carroll University, and his staff for their hospitality, and thanking the Local Arrangements Committee, the Program Committee, the Liturgy Committee, and all whose efforts made this year’s meeting a success. The membership approved the resolution by unanimous voice vote and applause.

Under new business, a motion from the Executive Board to raise the annual membership dues to $35 was unanimously approved by the membership. Two venues were proposed for the 2004 meeting. After some discussion, the membership chose the offer from St. Mary’s University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:10 P.M.

The general session in the evening heard David Noel Freedman deliver the paper “The Numbers Game: How the Hebrew Bible Became What It Is.”

Sessions on Tuesday, August 7

The task forces and continuing seminars met in the first part of the morning. Two simultaneous sessions followed: Carol J. Dempsey, O.P., “Creation, Revelation, and Redemption: Recovering the Biblical Tradition as a Conversation Partner for Theology in Relation to Ecology,” and Richard J. Cassidy, “Paul in Chains: Congruent Images in Acts, Philipians, and 2 Timothy?”

Edward Glynn, S.J., president of John Carroll University, was principal celebrant and homilist for the eucharistic liturgy at midday.
