Sessions on Monday, August 4

The task forces and continuing seminars resumed their work in the morning. Two simultaneous sessions then offered presentations by Jean-Pierre Ruiz ("An Exile's Baggage: Toward a Postcolonial Reading of Ezekiel") and Randall D. Chestnutt ("The Old Testament Pseudepigrapha and the New Testament in the New Century").

Sheila E. McGinn presided at our midday prayer.

In the general session of the afternoon, members listened to a panel discussion on "The Bible and Spirituality." The moderator was Pauline A. Viviano, and the panelists were Sandra M. Schneiders, I.H.M., Barbara Green, O.P., and Craig R. Koester.

CBA president Eugene C. Ulrich called the annual business meeting to order at 4:05 P.M. Richard J. Sklba gave the report of the chair of the Board of Trustees on the healthy financial situation of the association. Lawrence E. Boadt, C.S.P., treasurer of the association, then presented the treasurer's report, the substance of which had been previously distributed to the members present.

Joseph Jensen, O.S.B., gave the report of the executive secretary. The Executive Board approved or reaffirmed the following grants: (a) $30,000 for ten memorial stipends; (b) $40,000 for two CBA fellowships; (c) $17,000 for the archaeological project at Tell Qarqur; (d) $18,000 for the dig at Tell Mozan/Urkesh; (e) $40,000 plus travel expenses for the Visiting Professorships at the Pontifical Biblical Institute and the Ecole Biblique; (f) $9,000 for three archaeological research stipends; (g) $2,500 for the Japanese translation project of the Studium Biblicum Franciscanum; (h) a tithe of membership dues for famine relief ($5,327); (i) $10,000 to the Ecole Biblique in Jerusalem toward the renovation of the library; (j) $5,000 to the Dead Sea Scrolls Foundation; (k) four CBA scholarships at institutions with doctoral programs in biblical studies, including one newly established scholarship at Fordham University in honor of the late Roland E. Murphy, O.Carm. The Board also voted to continue to subscribe to Religious Studies Review for members of the association. The Board elected John J. Clabeaux to the Board of Trustees and nominated Michael Barré, S.S., for the Committee on Nominations. Jensen informed the members that the NAB Old Testament revision, completed in May 2002, will probably be considered for approval by the bishops at their meeting in March, 2004. The membership directory of the association will continue to be produced in printed copy as well as maintained online through the association's executive office. Jensen urged members to send in updated information as appropriate, including telephone numbers and e-mail addresses; these will not be posted publicly, however, without the member's permission. Next year's meeting will be held at St. Mary's University, Halifax, N.S., August 7–10, 2004. The venue for the 2005 meeting will be St. John's University, Collegeville, Minnesota, and the dates will be August 6–9. In 2006, we will meet at Loyola University, Chicago, August 5–8.

Richard J. Dillon gave the report of the editor of the CBQ. The increase in the number of issues of the journal published during the past twelve months has almost exhausted the backlog of accepted articles. As a result, current issues are down to five main articles each, instead of the six or seven that had been recent policy. Should the backlog increase, the size of the journal could also increase to accommodate the flow. During 2003, seventy-five articles were received, of which 22 were accepted, 33 rejected, and 20 remain in process. By the October issue in 2003, CBQ will have published approximately 203 book reviews. In preparation for the replacement of the current editor in January 2005, a committee has been appointed with the mandate to refine the editor's job description and to suggest candidates for the position. This committee is chaired by Francis J. Moloney, S.D.B., and includes the following associate editors of the journal: Linda Day, Gina Hens-Piazza, Leslie J. Hoppe, O.F.M., Robert A. Kugler, and Jerome T. Walsh.

In the absence of Christopher T. Begg, Joseph Jensen, O.S.B., gave the report of the editor of OTA. Both the February and July issues of 2003 have appeared, and the October issue is in process. The first two issues of the year have published 1,244 article abstracts and 259 book abstracts. Jensen reminded the members that, through a joint project of ATLA and the CBA, ATLA produces a CD-ROM each year that contains a cumulation of all issues of OTA. In addition, negotiations involving ATLA, CBA, and Ebsco are aimed at making this information available online in the near future.

Mark S. Smith gave the report of the editor of CBQMS. Volume 35 has appeared, volume 36 is in press, and volume 37 is in preparation. One manuscript was submitted but not accepted. Two queries have been received concerning completed manuscripts, and two others about works in progress. Smith urged the members to submit manuscripts for consideration, particularly in New Testament studies.

The list of candidates for membership in the association was not read, since it had been available to the members as part of printed handouts for the meeting. In the name of the committee on credentials, Alexander A. Di Lella, O.F.M., recommended the following candidates:
