CBA president Irene Nowell, O.S.B., called the annual business meeting to order at 4:00 P.M. Richard J. Sklba gave the report of the chair of the Board of Trustees on the healthy financial situation of the association. He also informed the membership of the intention of the Trustees to begin serious discussions regarding financial planning for the association so that its resources would continue to support the goals of the CBA. To that end he reported the possibility of a weekend devoted to further study of related questions by members of the Executive Board and Trustees. He underscored the fine work done by Joseph Jensen, O.S.B., and staff in monitoring the investments of CBA and their responsible growth. Lawrence E. Boadt, C.S.P., treasurer of the association, then presented the treasurer’s report, the substance of which had been previously distributed to the members present.

Joseph Jensen, O.S.B., gave the report of the executive secretary. The Executive Board approved or reaffirmed the following grants: (a) $48,000 for twelve Memorial Stipends; (b) $40,000 plus travel expenses for two CBA Fellowships; (c) $40,000 plus travel expenses for Visiting Professorships to the Pontifical Biblical Institute and the Ecole Biblique; (d) $16,000 for the dig at Tell Mozan/Urkesh; (e) $24,000 for the dig at Tell Qarqur; (f) $9,000 for three Archaeology Research Stipends; (g) $19,549, a tithe of the association's surplus, for famine relief; (h) $2,500 for the Japanese translation project of the Studium Biblicum Franciscanum; (i) $10,000 to the Ecole Biblique toward the renovation of their library; (j) $5,000 for the Dead Sea Scrolls Foundation; (k) four CBA scholarships; (l) $3,000 budgeted for travel grants to our annual meeting. The board also voted to continue to pay for subscriptions to the Religious Studies Review for members of the association.

The CBA Fellowships were awarded to Luke Timothy Johnson and Brent A. Strawn. The CBA Visiting Professorships were awarded to Richard E. DeMaris (to the PBI) and Duane L. Christensen (to the Ecole Biblique).

Jensen announced that the USCCB is proposing to reduce the CBA's share of royalties from the NAB from 25 percent to 10 percent. The Executive Board has sought legal counsel in addressing this question in order to bring the matter to a conclusion that is fair to the CBA.

The board agreed to a proposal from Kent Richards for CBA participation in SBL programs in Auckland, New Zealand (2008), and in Rome (2009), the latter marking the centennial anniversary of the PBI.

The board named Ronald D. Witherup, S.S., to the Board of Trustees. Marilyn McNamara Schaub to the Archaeology Committee, and nominated Susan M. Calef for the Committee on Nominations.

The association will meet next year at Fordham University, Bronx, New York (August 2-5), and in 2009 at Creighton University, Omaha, Nebraska (August 1-4).

Linda Day gave the report of the editor of the CBQ. During this past year, the rate of submissions has slowed to more typical levels. The numbers of articles (25) and book reviews (248) were somewhat higher than typical, the former because of shorter articles. An analysis of the types of articles submitted for consideration over the past year revealed, among other things, that fewer than one-quarter were from CBA members. The report concluded with an expression of gratitude for those associate editors completing their terms of service: Jon L. Berquist, Brendan Byrne, S.J., Toni Craven, and Robert A. Kugler.

In the absence of Christopher T. Begg, Joseph Jensen, O.S.B., gave the report of the editor of OTA. Both the February and July issues have appeared. They contain a combined total of 827 articles and 139 book abstracts. The October issue has gone to the typesetter.

In the absence of Mark S. Smith, Jensen gave the report of the editor of CBQMS. CBQMS 40, The Origins of the West Semitic Alphabet in Egyptian Scripts, by Gordon J. Hamilton, was awarded the Frank Moore Cross Award for Scholarly Research and Publication by the American Schools of Oriental Research at its national meeting in November. This year we published two new volumes: CBQMS 41, New Chapters in the Life of Paul: The Relative Chronology of His Career, by Gregory Tatum, O.P.; and CBQMS 42, Kinship Relations in the Gospel of John, by Joan Cecelia Campbell, C.S.M. Two volumes have been accepted for 2007–2008 and are in various stages of production. Of two other submissions, one has been rejected and the other is pending. The possibility of distribution in Europe, raised at last year's meeting, is being pursued.

The list of candidates for membership in the association was not read, since it had been available to the members throughout the meeting. In the name of the committee on credentials, Alexander A. Di Lella, O.F.M., recommended the following candidates:
