Travel Grants

About the Grants

The CBA is pleased to announce that funds are available for five $500 grants to support the travel of early career scholars to the CBA Annual General Meeting.

Requirements

Applicants for the CBA Travel Grants must be either ABD or up to five years post-PhD, non-tenure-track faculty.

1. Applicants are to fill out the application form providing their own contact information and the name and contact information of a professor who would be willing to support their application (to be contacted at the committee’s discretion).

2. Applicants must submit a CV and a 300-400-word Statement of Explanation that articulates i.) why they are drawn to attending the CBA Annual General Meeting and ii.) how their work and professional identity align with the mission of the CBA.

3. Applicants are to provide a list of published articles / books giving Title.

4. Applicants are to provide a statement showing their financial need for this grant.

5. Candidates may submit applications for both the Emerging Scholars Fellowship and for a CBA Travel Grant if they fit the criteria for both. An applicant who is awarded an Emerging Scholars Fellowship is disqualified from receiving the Travel Grant in the same year.

The Application Form may be downloaded from catholicbiblical.org/travel-grants-for-agm

Completed applications must be submitted ON OR BEFORE APRIL 1 to CBA-OFFICE@CUA.EDU in order to be considered for the next CBA Annual General Meeting.
