

Please consider making a contribution to CBPAC to protect the future of community banking in Kansas. When you or your bank contributes at least $100, you'll be included as part of the Century Club. Banks with 100 percent of employees and/or officers and directors contributing to CBPAC receive the distinction of being a Century Club 100% Bank.

The Community Bankers Political Action Committee (CBPAC) gives community bankers like you a voice in state politics by contributing to political candidates that uphold your values. CBPAC is the only state PAC that exclusively represents the interests of CBA of Kansas members.

When you are a part of Century Club, your professional interests are represented in the legislative process, ensuring that the financial services industry maintains a fair, competitive atmosphere. Your contribution to CBPAC demonstrates your commitment to the future of local banks in the state of Kansas.

Guidelines You Need To Know
Individuals, state-chartered banks and holding companies of national banks may contribute to more than one state PAC in any year. A designated consent form allowing solicitation of bank employees for a federal PAC does not prevent your bank from contributing to CBPAC, a state PAC.
