Thank you for applying for a Promising Practice!

Character limits – Spaces and special characters are included in the character limits. Text that exceeds the character limits will not be included.

Applications in English only - While we welcome applications from outside the United States, please note that we can only accept applications written in English.

Include a Photo - You will be asked to upload a photo of your practice in action. If you do not have a photo that represents your practice, you can upload a photo of your school or organization.

Photo Release Policy - If your photo includes young people, please be sure to follow relevant policies for releasing photos since this photo may appear on Character.org's website, in publications and any recognition event (should your practice be selected).

Contact Information – The contact and overview information provided in your application may appear on Character.org's website and publications (should your practice be selected).

Submitting your Application - You may "save and return" to your application as many times as you wish until you click the "submit" button at the end of the application. Once the application has been submitted, it cannot be edited.
