8:10 a.m. – Everything You Need to Know About Colorado's Sesquicentennial!

Tim Wolfe, Director, Colorado Tourism Office

In 2026, the United States will mark the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence—our nation's semiquincentennial. At the same time, Colorado will mark the 150th anniversary of our entrance into the Union—our state's sesquicentennial. As the Centennial State, Colorado is the only one who will observe twin anniversaries—our Sesquisequincentennial. In this session, you will learn what The America 250 - Colorado 150 Commission has planned and how it will impact tourism in Colorado next year!

8:35 a.m. - U.S. Hotel Performance Trends with a Colorado Spotlight

Raquel Ortiz, Director, Financial Performance – STR

This presentation will provide a comprehensive overview of current national hotel performance trends, highlighting key metrics and market dynamics across the U.S. Following the national perspective, we'll take a closer look at Colorado's hotel sector, examining recent performance indicators and regional developments. The session will conclude with a forward-looking forecast for the broader U.S. hotel industry, offering insights to support strategic planning and decision-making.

9:20 a.m. - Criminal Enterprises are Operating in Colorado Hotels – What You Need to Know!

Jeffrey Korman, Team Leader, Supervisory Federal Law Enforcement Agent, United States Postal Inspection Service

The role of mail theft used to perpetuate identity theft and organized crime is on the rise in Colorado hotels. Through a recent investigation, Denver Police Department and the United States Postal Inspection Service have identified a criminal network that has targeted the hotel industry to serve as locations for illegal activities, including prostitution, drug manufacturing, dangerous substance use, and furtherance of fraud. You'll learn what signs to look for to protect your property and guests.

11:00 a.m. – Sports Tourism Panel

Matthew Payne, Executive Director, Denver Sports Commission, an affiliate of Visit Denver

Megan Leatham, President & CEO, Colorado Springs Sports Commission

Sara Olson, Vice President of Communications and Resort Marketing, Vail Resorts

Moderated by: Davis Tutt, Senior Director of Sports Tourism & Olympic Engagement, Colorado Springs Sports Commission

Sports tourism is an important and fast-growing sector within travel and hospitality. It encompasses both major spectator sports and the expanding market of "active participants." Hotels are now seeing a steady stream of guests who travel specifically for a range of activities, from competing in marathons to seeking out adventure sports, like skiing and snowboarding. Ski tourism is the lifeblood of the hotel industry in many of Colorado's mountain communities.
