

Tuesday, Nov 19

8:00AM-8:50AM

ALL SESSIONS ARE LOCATED IN HARBOR H (2nd Floor)

PRESENTATION

Legal Considerations for AI in Education

Learn more about the legal considerations so you can support your district's students, staff and families on this quickly evolving technology.

SPEAKERS:

Gretchen Shipley

Attorney, F3 Law

9:00AM-9:50AM

PRESENTATION

Conquering Network Security – From DDoS Attacks to Ransomware

This session will provide critical information on the new pilot program and how to apply, and how California's K12 HSN is working with schools on this critical issue.

SPEAKERS:

Luis A. Wong

Chief Executive Officer, K12HSN

Kristen Corra

Policy Counsel, SHLB Coalition

10:00AM-10:50AM

PRESENTATION

Only as Strong as the Weakest Link: Managing Third-Party Cybersecurity Risk

In this presentation K12 SIX Director Doug Levin will review what we know about these incidents and what school systems can do to help mitigate the risks: before, during, and after the procurement process.

SPEAKERS:

Doug Levin

National Director, K12 Security Information eXchange

3:00PM-3:50PM

PRESENTATION

AI-Assisted Network Monitoring: Legal Considerations

Learn about how to responsibly assess the suitability of using threat monitoring software in your district.

SPEAKERS:

Gretchen Shipley

Attorney, F3 Law

4:00PM-4:50PM

PRESENTATION

Pure Politics: The Policy, Finance and Political Landscape Impacting Technology in Schools

In this session, we will examine these issues, as well as how the highly charged national political environment following a very contentious election season will undoubtedly impact the politics of education in California.

SPEAKERS:

Nick Romley

Legislative Advocate, Capitol Advisors Group

Laurel Nava

Deputy Executive Director, CITE

Antonio Romayor Jr.

Chief Operations Officer, Imperial County COE President, Board of Directors, CITE

Wednesday, Nov 20

8:00AM-8:50AM

ALL SESSIONS ARE LOCATED IN HARBOR H (2nd Floor)

MODERATED PANEL

Refining Technology Proposals with AI Prompt Engineering

Attendees will gain insights into how AI prompt engineering can serve as a critical tool for evaluating the relevance and impact of technology projects within their educational setting.

SPEAKERS:

Dana Henderson Jr

Information Systems Officer
CSIS

Thursday, Nov 21

8:00AM-8:50AM

ALL SESSIONS ARE LOCATED IN HARBOR H (2nd Floor)

PRESENTATION

AI, Privacy & Contracts with F3

SPEAKERS:

Libbi Nelson

Director of Resource & Service Programs, CITE

Erin Clancy

Contracts Specialist II, CITE

Gretchen Shipley

Attorney, F3 Law

10:00AM-10:50AM

MODERATED PANEL

A Milestone Year in E-Rate and What it Means for CA Schools

Join us for an insightful panel discussion delving into the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) recent strides in enhancing connectivity and fortifying cybersecurity measures.

SPEAKERS:

John Windhausen Jr

Executive Director, SHLB

11:00AM-11:50AM

PRESENTATION

Building the Future-Proof IT Workforce: Engage Gen Z+ Talent

Learn how to cultivate a future-proof workforce that fosters innovation and supports the learning needs of your students.

SPEAKERS:

Luke Goetting

Director, Building the Future-Proof IT Workforce: Engage Gen Z+ Talent

3:00PM-3:50PM

PRESENTATION

Empowering Women in Educational Data Leadership: Pathways, Possibilities, and Strategies for Success

This session is designed to empower female leaders to pursue careers in exploring educational data leadership pathways, and providing practical tips for overcoming challenges and preparing for success.

SPEAKERS:

Kristine Shipman-Smith

Executive Leadership Coach
San Diego County Office of Education

4:00PM-4:50PM

PRESENTATION

From Computer Technician to CTO

In this session Ben Markley, Chief Technology Officer (CTO) for Hemet USD will share his personal path from Computer Technician to CTO and beyond.

SPEAKERS:

Ben Markley

Chief Technology Officer
Hemet Unified School District