

California League of Food Producers (CLFP) Scholarship Program

Now accepting applications for the 2026-2027 academic year!
Must be postmarked by Wednesday, September 20, 2026.

The success of CLFP's Scholarship Program is due to support from the CLFP Supplier Host Council, members and industry friends through their generous donations.

Member Employee Scholarship Eligibility ($1,000 and $500 awards)

To be eligible to apply, students must meet the following qualifications:

- Currently attend or be enrolled for the Fall 2026 semester as an undergraduate student in an accredited four-year California college or university or an accredited two-year California community college.
- Have a GPA of 2.5 or higher.
- Be a CLFP processor member full-time or full-time seasonal employee or their dependent or be a CLFP Supplier Host Council member full-time employee or their dependent.
- Submit application by the deadline with all required documents as outlined in the attached materials.

$500 Member Employee Scholarship

Scholarships are available to qualified students enrolled in a two-year accredited California community college.

$1,000 Member Employee Scholarship

Scholarships are available to qualified students enrolled in a four-year accredited California college or university.

