

TRUST ... SOUNDS GOOD, BUT HOW?

COAA-WI FALL 2023 WORKSHOP

FRIDAY, SEPT. 8

THE SPARK | 821 E. WASHINGTON AVE | MADISON, WI 53703

Most people would agree that trust is a fundamental trait of high-performing teams and the foundation for getting people to work together effectively. Yet trust often erodes on project teams, slowly and over time, resulting in declining team synergy and directly impacting the project itself.

Kyle Majchrowski – healthcare Owner, COAA member, and co-founder of Ripple Intent – will lead an interactive workshop that dives deeply into trust. In the first part, explore the brain science of trust, why we extend and withhold trust, and how that impacts our judgment of others. The second part will focus on application of this knowledge to improve our relationships, meetings, communication, and project performance.
