

KYLE MAJCHROWSKI BANNER HEALTH

As Senior Project Executive within Banner Health, Kyle supports the team that manages capital improvement projects throughout five states within Banner's western division. Kyle is also the founder of Ripple Intent, an all-volunteer non-profit organization that offers events focused on improving people. Kyle's teams continue to impact the project delivery experience, implementing collaborative efforts. He focuses on building a strong culture of trust and vulnerability to deliver successful projects. Driven to substantially impact workplace engagement, Ripple Intent explores new opportunities in delivery means, methods, and relationships.

Kyle has a unique perspective that combines experience as a subcontractor, contractor, developer, and institutional Owner ... plus time within technology firms focused on the construction industry. Combining degrees in Construction Management and Industrial Technology, he channels his passion for delivering the best cultural environment for his teams to succeed.

Kyle enjoys spending time with his family of three boys in all Colorado has to offer.
