

A STRONGER VOICE FOR HOSPITALITY IN CONNECTICUT

The Connecticut Restaurant & Hospitality Association is the state's largest and most established hospitality community, bringing together restaurants, hotels, and hospitality businesses to strengthen the industry through advocacy, connection, and support.

As our association continues to grow, we're inviting lodging leaders across Connecticut to join a network of hospitality professionals helping shape the future of the industry.

Why Hotel Leaders Are Joining CRHA

- Insight into issues that directly impact your business
- Access to conversations shaping hospitality policy and industry priorities
- Relationships with hotel and hospitality leaders facing similar challenges
- A stronger voice for the lodging industry on key issues

CRHA Hotel Member Dues

- Under 50 rooms: $500 annually
- 50+ rooms: $10 per room (maximum $10,000 annually)
- Restaurants on property: $250 per restaurant

Practical Resources for Your Business

Membership provides access to timely information, trusted expertise, and resources that help operators navigate day-to-day challenges.

- Labor and employment guidance
- Regulatory and compliance updates
- Workforce development resources
- Training and educational opportunities
- Industry data and business insights
- Trusted partners and service providers

Membership is how you get connected.
Scan the QR code to learn more.