Our Direct Impact

Stopped Costly Over Regulation

The El Paso Association of Builders took a stand and won—securing the right to challenge impact fees. Backed by expert testimony from the Texas Association of Builders, they delivered a powerful, persuasive case that made an impact.

Limiting Useless Code Modification

The EPAB successfully pushed back against unnecessary code changes—convincing the city to limit new implementations strictly to health and safety issues. It's a major win for builders and suppliers, cutting red tape and keeping the focus where it matters most.

Code Reform

The EPAB teamed up with local associations across Texas to drive major reform—successfully pushing sweeping changes to the International Electrical and Residential Codes. Instead of annual updates, code changes will now roll out just once every six years—giving builders and suppliers greater stability and fewer disruptions.

Protecting Affordability

The EPAB is a powerful voice for the homebuilding industry—locally, statewide, and nationally. Backed by a full-time professional team and passionate volunteers, we rally the strength of our members to protect and preserve new home construction. Whether it's legislative battles or civic issues, we make sure Builders and Associates are heard loud and clear.

HOMEPAC

Your Voice. Your Industry. Your Future.

HOMEPAC is the political muscle behind the Texas Association of Builders. It backs pro-housing candidates and key decision-makers who get what it takes to keep Texas building strong.

Every dollar contributed helps elect leaders who fight for the future of homebuilding—and against the red tape that holds us back. It's not just politics—it's protecting your business.

Support HOMEPAC. Shape the future. Build Texas.

Housing's Voice in Washington

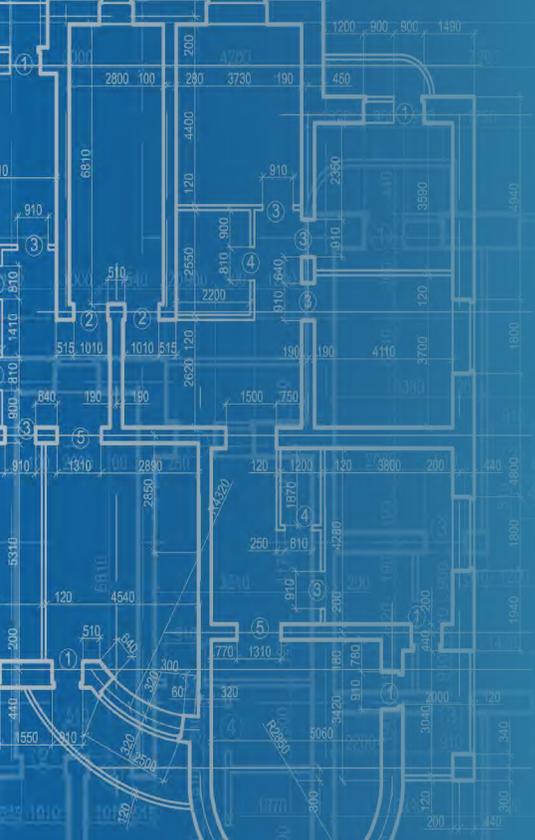

BUILD-PAC, NAHB's bipartisan political arm, helps elect pro-housing, pro-business candidates to federal office and is critical to NAHB's success on Capitol Hill.

During the 2023-2024 election cycle, BUILD-PAC contributed to 361 U.S. congressional candidates and played in over 55 competitive races. BUILD-PAC was able to accomplish this by holding nearly 100 fundraising events and campaigns across the country, expanding PAC participation within NAHB's councils and committees, and continuing to grow its high donor clubs.

Step up. Speak out. Power BUILD-PAC.

Both HOMEPAC and BUILD-PAC contributions must be on an individual basis not from a corporate entity.
