PRESENTER CONDUCT

ANTITRUST STATEMENT

All panelists, moderators, etc. are expected to hold themselves to the highest professional standards at all times, including during any selected session. Presenters will refrain from harmful speech, political or ideological rhetoric, inappropriate humor or derogatory remarks, and promotion of company or personal products and services.

It is expected that all presenters will respond to posted deadlines and requests for information in a timely manner.

Officers, directors, members and invited guests (including presenters) are reminded that various local, state and federal laws prohibit the exchange of information amongst competitors regarding matters pertaining to price, refusals to deal, market division, tying relationships, and other topics which might infringe upon antitrust regulations. No such exchange or discussion will be tolerated during meetings, programs, events, etc.

These guidelines apply not only to formal meeting sessions, but to informal discussions during breaks, and meals or social gatherings.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By responding to the call for presentations and submitting these sessions you agree to abide by the terms and conditions addressed above. If your session or sessions are selected, you will be required to review additional terms and conditions prior to final approval.
